

of the free, commercial and then over those whom they e Ionian tribes in Asia, and ean Sea was too well known; ans had their Helotes as well Negro Slaves. Interest then, ther real or imaginary, was g that controuled the feelings. batever other claims we may ngland, if we have none up- g passion, we might as well her. The Petition must stand nd can receive no additional gation of the most respectable to answer no other than a bad ring birth to jealousies in the which, however unfounded in be called unnatural. Mr. eluded by moving, that Lord Bellew, Mr. Keogh, &c. &c. nsmitt this Petition of the Ca- the Right Honorable Henry ld deprecated all idea of divi- of opinion at a moment when ever, essential to the interests se. Distinguished as they had cordial union among them, it oly to see them quarrel at this affairs. For his part he could ce in effect, between a depu- and one formed in Dublin.— o the same objections, though ptable of equal benefits. He ight be deemed a middle course, meet the designs and wishes rties. It was his wish to recon- es, if possible, and with that moved—"that the transmission old be left entirely to the Com- and that they should be far- tance their sittings, still holding the Catholic Body, until the on is known."

without immediately making ted his design of doing so, and, ence over the Gentleman who inal motion, he would exert it im, if he did not find it repug- er reflection, to withdraw it. surd the Gentleman who had the noble chairman, that he was to his own opinions, that he was ithdraw his motion, if such was meeting; but being as yet unac- reir sense upon the subject, he consistent with the respect he ithdraw his motion, until their ore unequivocally declared. ped that it was possible in the question to proceed without— ngoold protested against his ha- any thing to that effect to the

is perfectly assured that the mea- a had never entered the learned d; but as the ex-term itself had ps, it might be possible that some ght be annexed to it by the mee- was more a friend to real unani- f, but then he wished that unani- , and not a mere silent acquies- fessed, that there were some diffi- l sides of the question. The con- Delegates had not, throughout prevent. It would be the misfortune of the Catholic Body, and he should sincerely pray, that it might not be that of the Ministry too.

Mr. Mahon having hinted that a Delegation of but one, and that one the Noble Chairman, would probably answer the views of all parties, and be liable to none of the objections already stated, the idea was eagerly seized by Mr. Keogh, who said, that if reduced to the form of a motion, he would second it.

Mr. Mahon then moved, that the Catholic Petition be transmitted to Mr. Grattan by Lord Fingal, for the purpose of being laid before Parliament this Session. The motion was seconded by Mr. Keogh, and carried unanimously.

KENNEDY V. KELLY.

An action for slander was tried on Monday last in the Court of King's Bench before the Right Hon. the Lord Chief Justice Downes and a Special Jury; wherein the plaintiff, who is an attorney, brought an action for letters which had been written containing some foul aspersions, which he conceived to militate against his character; the trial lasted almost the whole of the day, after which the Jury pronounced a verdict for the defendant with six-pence costs.

Thursday last an action came to be tried in the Common Pleas before Lord Norbury, in which H. Williams, of Anglesea-street, in this city, merchant, was plaintiff, and P. J. T. Pearce was defendant. The action was brought against Pearce for making a forcible entry into Williams's dwelling-house, and possessing himself of his property. It appeared Pearce was messenger and provisional assignee under a Commission of Bankruptcy issued in London—and after a full investigation of the matter by a trial which lasted two days; the Jury brought in a verdict for plaintiff of 300l. damages.

BANKRUPTS.—Wm. Martindell, of Hardwick-street, in the county of Dublin, shoemaker; John Killikelly, of Capel-street, dealer and chapman; and Wm. Coogan, of Francis-street, woollen-draper, all to surrender on the 7th and 9th of March, and 7th of April next.

Eng. Stocks. 3 per cent. Cons. (Feb. 19) 62 ¹/₄
Irish Stocks. G. Deb. 5 per ct. (Feb. 24) 94
Exch. Dublin on London (Feb. 23) —

The General Advertiser.

LIMERICK, FEBRUARY 27.

Several pieces of wreck having been picked up at Beerhaven, co. Cork, it is apprehended that some vessels have been lately lost there—but nothing was found that could lead to a discovery of the vessels names or country.

Thursday se'nnight, a melancholy accident occurred in the distillery of Messrs. G. Delahoyde and Co. Drogheda. While the still was undergoing some repairs, the chimney fell, and a very respectable young man, who conducted the business, and one of the workmen, were unfortunately crushed to death.

On Monday last the Outward West India fleet, 62 sail in number under Convoy of the Acasta frigate and Helena sloop, sailed from Cork.

On Tuesday evening the Isabella, of and from Dublin, John Byrne, master, laden with bale goods and butter, bound for Malaga, was wrecked on the Carrigs, off Greenore Point—crew saved.—The vessel and most of the cargo will be lost.

Wednesday last, being the day appointed for a general fast and humiliation, it was observed in this city with all possible solemnity and decorum.

We have reason to believe that a system for removing the oppression and burthens of tythes in

MARRIAGES.

In Dublin, Charles Croker King, Esq. of North Cumberland-street, to Miss Perrin, of South Cumberland-street. Thursday se'nnight, at Lambeth Church, London, Lieut. Colonel George Cookson, of the Royal Horse Artillery, to Miss Margaret Remington, only daughter of William Remington, Esq.

DEATHS.

A few days since, in Hampshire, Thomas Gabbett, Esq. of Sparsholt-house, Berkshire, England. He was the last surviving son of the late General Joseph Gabbett; his remains were interred at Sparsholt, on Wednesday se'nnight.—By his demise, a landed property of nearly 4000l. per annum, devolves to Alderman Joseph Gabbett, of this city, and his family.

At Drehadarsha, near Adare, in this county, Ann Meade, at the advanced age of 114 years.

A few days ago in Killarney, Mrs. Elizabeth O'Leary, linen and woollen draper, relict of the late Mr. — O'Leary, of that town

ENNIS MARKET PRICES,

For the Week ending 21st February, 1807.
Wheat, per Barrel of 20 stone, 17. 18s. 0d.
Oats, per ditto of 14 stone, 12s. 0d.
Potatoes from 3d. to 3 ¹/₂ d. per stone.

Waterford Market Prices, — Feb. 24.

Pork, 35s to 39s per cwt.—Butter, 1st quality, 90s; 2d ditto, 85s; 3d ditto, 80s per cwt; Wheat 37s to 40s per barrel; Barley 16s to 17s per ditto; Bere 17 to 18s per ditto; Malt 34s per ditto; Oats 13s to 14s; Whitehaven Coal 5s per ditto; Fresh Butter 1s 8d to 1s 10d per lb.; Mutton 4d to 6d per ditto; Beef 3d to 4d per lb.; Potatoes 3d to 4d per stone.

LIMERICK MARKET PRICES.

Wheat, _____	5. d.	5. d.	5. d.	5. d.
Oats, _____	0 10	to	0 2	1
English Barley,	0 0	to	0 11	1/2
Beef, _____	0 9	to	0 0	0
Potatoes, _____	0 2	1/2	to	0 3
Flour, _____	25 0	to	28 0
Pork, _____	34 0	to	0 0	0
Fresh Butter, _____	1 2	to	1 4
Mould Candles (in Boxes)	0 11	to	0 0	0
Dipped ditto, _____	0 10	to	0 0	0
Beef, _____	0 4	1/2	to	0 5
Mutton, _____	0 4	1/2	to	0 5

LIMERICK PRICE OF NEW BUTTER.

98s. 94s. 84s. Firkins,
96s. 92s. 82s. Tubs.

JUST ARRIVED TO CRILLEY AND BINDON;

FROM THE NORTH WEST FISHERY,
AND Selling on reasonable Terms, on board the Sloop Thistle, now lying at the LONG DOCK, Five Hundred Thousand well-cured HERRINGS
Limerick; 27th Feb. 1807

HOSPITAL COUNTY LIMERICK INFIRMARY.

A MEETING of the Governors and Governesses of the County of Limerick Infirmary, will be held at One o'Clock in the afternoon of Friday the 6th of March next, on very particular business.

Feb. 27th, 1807. By Order, W. D. HOARE, Treasurer.

CRIM. CON:

TWENTY THOUSAND POUNDS DAMAGES!

JUST PUBLISHED, and to be had at MAC DONNELL'S, City-Arms, Rutland-street, Limerick,