

Waterford, March 3.

vious outrage was committed in this city on the night several men, well armed with swords, pistols, &c. made their neighbourhood of Ballyduff, and Congreve. They first assailed a farmer of the name of Nalley are supposed to have entered designs. Not finding they robbed a house of two departed, without doing any injury. They then proceeded to another farmer, whom they thought he would conduct them to one Fitzgerald, who had a ground. They met Fitzgerald were proceeding to his house, and beating him, they swore that he would deliver up the next day. Fitzgerald's horse, other horses in the neighbourhood by them, and the whole proceeded next day an early for their recovery. Whilst thus covered John Fitzgerald, whom took into custody. This is a der, and was, about two years our county jail on a charge of offence is naturally remarkable; still more so by a cut on his nose, the honorable memorial of some; he was recognized by Jordan, whom the oath was administered Rogers Esq. of this city, happened the occurrences took place, assistance in his power to the active men; and having procured the yeomen, brought John Fitzgerald, by whom he has been fully regarded's remaining behind his base to have arisen from intoxication to detail such abominations and it seems difficult to account in crimes which cannot elude the end of which the inevitable result is death. It is our fervent hope, every one who regards social order, that the perpetrators will be all their hiding places, and until their forfeited lives shall make rent that remains to the violated country.
