measures of Government, so amply and clearly manifested in the progress of the late dignified Commission, this country, formerly so peaceable and happy, is now disgraced by the most savage acts of outrage and alarm. Murder and robbery continue to insult the peace of the country, and to destroy its character, and no man's dwelling can be said to be safe. Witnesses against the guilty perpetrators of outrage, murdered; the gentry deprived of their arms, and contributions levied upon the country—and all this, by a simple and harmless body of men stiled Threshers!

Ennis, March 18.—We understand that the gentlemen deputed by the Catholics of the County of Clare, to wait on their Representatives with the request of that Body, for their support of the Catholic Petition, conformable to their instructions, attended Sir Edw. O'Brien, when that worthy and patriotic Baronet was pleased to make the following answer:

"Gentlemen, I shall attend my duty in Parliament, and support the measure; I have ever supported it from a strong conviction that it would be most essential and beneficial to the interests of the Empire at large, and shall always continue to give it the same support."

The High Sheriff has appointed the following Gentlemen Replacers for the ensuing year:

- John Hickman, of Kilmore, Esq.
- Cha. O'Callaghan, of Coolcreedy, Esq.
- Francis Swyny, of Fairy-Hill, Esq.
- John Perry, of Crusheen, Esq.

Two private Distilleries of some magnitude, and of very great injury to the Revenue, were on Saturday last discovered and found at work in the parish of Kilkeedy, by John Downes, Esq. Surveyor of Excise.—After a considerable quantity of potale, &c. had been destroyed, the seizures that were made at those Distilleries were brought in here the next day and lodged in the King's stores. Mr. Downes was assisted by a detachment of the Longford Militia under the command of an Officer.

MARRIED.—At Killenaule Church, on Saturday last, James Armstrong, of Thurles, Esq. to Miss Bradshaw, daughter of Richard Bradshaw, Esq. of Oakfield, co. Tipperary.

DIED.—On Tuesday last, most sincerely regretted, at his seat at Cartown, in this county, Henry Fosbery, Esq.—a gentleman remarkable for his amiable, generous, and disinterested disposition, and one who filled all the social and relative duties in a manner becoming such a worthy character.—This morning, in William-street, after a tedious illness, much lamented by her parents, Miss Hogan, daughter of Mr. John Hogan, spirit factor.
