LIMERICK, APRIL 24.

We this day give the Debate in the House of Commons on Mr. Lyttleton's motion, which our limits would not allow us to insert last publication.

The Commissioners of his Majesty's Revenues of Inland Taxes were pleased to direct the Collector of Ennis District, Boyle Vandeleur, Esq. to make their acknowledgments, in the most handsome manner, to William Butler, of Bunnahow, and Walter Butler, of Cregg, Esqrs. for their very proper conduct, as Magistrates; in the support and assistance they have given Mr. Downes, while in the execution of his office in suppressing private distilleries. We trust that the marked approbation of those Magistrates' conduct by the Board of Commissioners, will induce other gentlemen to follow their example.

Tuesday night, the Kilkenny regiment of Militia, quartered in this city, received a route;—yesterday, the first division, commanded by captain Butler, and this morning the last, commanded by captain Murphy, marched from hence for Rathkeal, Askeaton, Newcastle, and Tarbert, to replace the Louth regiment, which marched from the above places this morning for Cork, to replace the Galway regiment, at present on their march for this city: the 1st division will be in here to-morrow.

On Wednesday night, the house of Mr. Healy, victualler, near the new shambles, was broke into by some robbers, who carried off 16 guineas in silver, a watch, a quantity of spirits, &c. &c. the watch was next day offered for sale, by a private in the 97th regiment, to Mr. Baynham, which was identified, and the soldier committed to jail.

The 13th and 26th regiments are under orders for this country.

MARRIED.—Thomas O'Dell, Esq. of Creden-Lodge, to Miss Lambert, daughter of Wm. Lambert, Esq. of the co. Wexford.—At the Quakers' Meeting-house of Colonel, Rob. Davis, Esq. to Miss Rebecca Chaytor, daughter of Nicholas Chaytor, of Cahir, Esq. both of the Society of Friends.

DIED.—Last Monday, after a few days illness at his seat at Riverstown, co. Clare, Mrs. Blood, wife of Bindon Blood, Esq.—She appeared slightly indisposed for a few days, but expired without a pang; the suddenness of her dissolution, severely aggravates the affliction which an affectionate husband, and a numerous and amiable family, have to sustain in the loss of so much excellence, of a character, who discharged every domestic relation of life with the most endearing tenderness and distinguished propriety. An extensive circle of friends will long and sincerely cherish the memory of her cultivated mind, her elegant manners, and unaffected piety.
