DEATHS.

Suddenly, at his house in Brunswick-row, Queen-square, Bloomsbury, London, C. Dilly, Esq. formerly an eminent bookseller in the Poultry.—Lately, at Stafford, England, at the advanced age of 82, Mr. Bullock, basket-maker, whose general habits of life were as rare as they were exemplary—By honest industry he supported a large family; and for the last 30 years he had been in the constant habit of appropriating the profits of four hours labour every day to the use of the poor. Whenever this singular character felt disposed to yield to the ebullitions of anger, or the murmurings of discontent, it was his constant practice to retire into a private apartment, where he kept, for the purpose, a Coffin, in which he used to remain till he subdued the irregularity of his passions by the efforts of his reason.—Saturday last, in Ennis, after a long and painful illness, aged 18 years, Miss Margaret O'Donnell, daughter of the late John O'Donnell, of Cahirlonig, near Corofin, co. Clare, Esq.

TO THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF LIMERICK:

GENTLEMEN,

ON your partial and decided preference, I rest my sanguine hopes of Success in the event of any Contest, and to you alone (uninfluenced and uncontrolled by Party exertion), I attribute the very flattering progress I have made since the commencement of a hurried Canvass. Pledged and determined as I am, to co-operate with you on avowed Principles of Independence, I rely with confidence on your early attendance at St. Francis's—Abbey, on Wednesday next. In the mean time, I assure you with sincerity, that having placed strong reliance on the many proofs I experienced of your voluntary Professions and Attachment, no overture of accession under any auspices but yours, shall induce me to abandon my engagements with you, to whom I owe such heartfelt Obligations—As no exertion of mine could accomplish the desirable advantage of paying you my personal respects individually, I trust such an omission will not diminish your zeal in support of,
 Gentlemen,

With assurances of high consideration,
 Your much obliged, and attached Servant,
 Ballyseeda, May 18, 1807 MICHAEL FURNELL.

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, OF THE COUNTY OF LIMERICK:

GENTLEMEN,

I inst. for holding the Election, I request your attendance and support on that and the following days, at as early an hour as you conveniently can. Encouraged as I have been in the very limited canvass, the sudden Dissolution of Parliament has allowed me to make, I have no doubts of success, and hope those Gentlemen to whom it has not been in my power to apply, will have the goodness to excuse me, and attribute my neglect, to the real cause, want of time.— Should I have the honor of being returned as one of your Representatives, I shall use my best endeavours to Represent you faithfully, convinced that by such conduct only, I can have any pretensions to your future favour.

I have the Honor to be,
 Gentlemen,

Your very faithful and most obedient humble servant,
 Tervoe, May 16, 1807 W. T. MONSELL.

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Freemen, of the City of Limerick:

GENTLEMEN,

ELECTED once more your Representative, the first duty I have to perform is, to return you my most sincere and heartfelt thanks for this additional proof of your confidence and regard; I beg to assure you that the same attention to the welfare of Ireland, and to the interest of this most respectable City, which has recommended me to your notice, shall continue unabated, and that I shall ever retain a lively sense of the many favors you have been pleased to confer upon me.

I have the honor to be,
 Gentlemen,

Your obliged and faithful servant,
 CHARLES VEREKER.
