To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, OF THE COUNTY OF LIMERICK:

GENTLEMEN,

I HAVE again to solicit the honor of your Votes and Interest:—Should you think fit to Elect me a second time your Representative, I am conscious that no man will discharge the trust reposed in him with greater zeal and fidelity, and that no one will continue to feel your partiality with warmer sentiments of gratitude.

I have the Honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your most faithful Friend and Servant, LONDON, April 28, 1807. WINDHAM QUIN.

To the Electors of the County of Limerick.

GENTLEMEN,

AS there is now every reason to expect a Contest at the ensuing Election, I request your attendance in my behalf on Wednesday next, at St. Francis's-Abbey.

Upon those leading interests of the County who have so long and so honourably acted together, and who by their co-operation have so often asserted their own dignity, and the independence of the County, I now call with increasing confidence, and I trust that I may ever be entitled to their zeal. when I assure them that I have abandoned a considerable
