A Plan of an INSTITUTION for the PROMOTION,

GENERAL ELECTION.

To the INDEPENDENT ELECTORS of the County of Limerick.

CCEPT my warmest and most grateful thanks, for the A very honourable support I have received from you, on the late tedious Contest :- You have failed, for the present, in establishing your Rights; but, you know your own strength, and nothing but inactivity, or acquiescence on your part, can prevent you in future from returning both your Members.

Aware of your power, no means have been left untried, no misrepresentation has been stopped at, by those who consider themselves ill treated at your presuming to interfere in the choice of your Representatives, to check that spirit of Independence, that had at length been roused. The Government of the Country have been assured you could make no resistance, and, by such unfounded assertions, their Interests have been sacrified to the wishes, or the passions of those, who not content with having kept one of your Seats for many years in trust, for one too young to attain that Honor, have now used all their influence, both public and private, and strained every nerve, to keep you in that dependent state, you have submitted to remain in for some years back. Opinions alledged to be of high authority, on points to be agitated at the Poll, are said to have been shewn, to bias if possible the judgment of our very respectable and honorable High Sheriff : Men of considerable Property have been deterred by threats from keeping their promises of support to me, and the fury of religious bigorry has been sciented up, with a degree of violence unknown in this County least, against me, who when in Parliament, gave my feedle assistance to promote every measure brought forward in favour of the Roman Catholics. This delusion cannot last—Facts must prevail against interested and malicious reports, fabricated solely for Election purposes: I never went into Parliament but as a free Agent I never will go into it, in any other character.

Should I find I have just grounds for a Petition, be assured I shall not desert your Rights; if not, we must for the present submit; but you may rely on it, you shall always find me ready to co-operate in any manner you shall point out, in support of your Independence.

I cannot conclude without requesting the High Sheriff and his Counsel to accept my best acknowledgments, for the temper, candour, and impartiality of their conduct during the whole of this Election I have the Honor to be,

GENTLEMEN, Your most faithful and most devoted humble Servant, W. T. MONSELL.

Tervoe, June 5, 1807

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Limerick:

CANNOT find words adequate to express the sentiments of pride and gratitude I feel towards you, whose partiality has again placed me one of the Representatives of this great and independent County. My public conduct shall evince my gratitude better than any language I now can employ:--While I have a Seat in Parliament I will serve you with fidelity. I have the Honor to be,

Your most sincere And faithful Friend and Servant, Limerick, Friday, June 5 WINDHAM QUIN.
