MERICK, JUNE 19.

day arrived at Swinburn's Hotel. hat highly esteemed and respectable John Waller, Esq. and next morning to his seat at Castletown, in this county. Monday se'onight a considerable number most respectable gentlemen of the county ry, entertained Col. Mathew at dinner at On his approach, within two miles of en, he was met by an immense concourse ple, who came forward with honest heart. al to greet the Friend of the People, and Hy unharnessed his horses, and drew his into town, amidst reiterated huzzas for pular member. The cavalcade was precedan hundred lovely Country Girls attired in with blue ribbands, who ushered him into de a captivating appearance.

day, as may be expected, was spent with the conviviality: the town was brilliantly ated, and the only emulation that appeared the endeavour to contribute most to the geminess. Every part of the day's and failivity was conducted with the best ortemper, and at a late hour the company antly separated. In Thurles, the rejoic-Colonel Mathew's success were beyond mer example—the town was literally a In Cashel and Roscrea also, there were the strongest sentiments of exultation at all of the late election. And we are hapsarn, that in all those places those indulof popular opinion, too often disgraced distinctions and jealousies, passed over any occurrence that could give offence to I feeling.
