

om the delinquent endeavoured to if the shameful excesses committed ng your attention to a particular in-the object of these lines—you, genciency of the army is—in its dis-not to offend—its establishment—and a determination to pervert the ranks, we may then truly say with d Abercrombie—"you are formi-e common enemy"—so fully was all ages, that even the ties of blood youth, in disobeying his Father's ntry was served in the very act of such as any one the soldier's claim ions in the camp and his perils in an object of public concern—but ntry and observes the porter in the the garden providing for his wants, living, and an easier employment he obligations he in his turn owes al, I would not be lead into a single tiousness, gross, unprovoked, and e reflections from

A SOLDIER'S FRIEND. excesses above mentioned, but delin-our publishing any observations aware the Commanding Officer here ures in punishing the offenders—cotemporary print have induced us letter.

ALL.—14th August, 1807.
 e, given by Mr. Grady and Mr.
 Countess of Clare, so creditable to ty of this part of the Country, had ich expectation, that we gratify our a description—and tho' a general ent has already been given in this a more detailed one will be accepta-deavour to give an idea of a Fete, al of upwards of 300 guests, could by repeated bursts of applause, the ent.

for this occasion, was during what Moon; and the absence of that placical light. The several gates open-illustrated by torches, the approach robbery, was partially illuminated, issitudes of light and shade, and to st between that, and the arrival at the lumns of torch-light poured a meri-e. Upon ascending the portico, the stibule, with that of the saloon in istible, that every group of the comon, stood for some moments in the a state of involuntary acclamation. rtment, which from its construction als for taste to work upon—divided tic arch of considerable extent, this for the purposes of the evening—ing a laurel branch that sprung from he other, were entwined with spirnps; the laurel branch was adorned light, while a bronze Mercury supthe centre—the extreme ends of the entrance from the portico, the other the saloon, displayed correspondent ad produced the effect of three superb company passed to the saloon. s the ball-room, was a blaze of light, nged as to throw upon the objects all of softness and of lustre—never be-radiant—never before did it appear posite the entrance was covered with lamps, crowned with an arch sur-nt festoon of crystal and of purple the room exhibited the different or-columns or pillars of lamps en-rel, and decorated with flowers—the dicated by a great Mirror in the centre. company passed to the refectory, the , but plain, simple, and unadorned, the effect of the other two. This rds and refreshments.—A room upon trace to this apartment was formed r, where a band of invisible Muses —another bower of the same sort was nity, while a communication between re, enabled those fleeting spirits, like e every part of the room successively a chef d'œuvre of taste, opened from on. This room was laid out for con-staining each a shaded lamp, diffused it restored and tranquillized the ex-lusion is the only great recompense to man for all the toils and troubles of this life.

At three o'clock the trumpets sounded for supper—and the company proceeded from the Villa of Belmont to that of Shannon-Lodge. As neither house was in itself large enough for all the purposes of the evening, it was determined by Mr. Grady and Mr. Bruce, to put both Villas in requisition, and to unite them by a corridor of canvass, for the occasion; this project, tho' sufficiently bold, was happily executed.— Thro' this corridor the company passed by torch-light, and at that moment we saw realized for once, all the fairy visions of enthusiastic fancy.

The picturesque addition of the torch-light upon one of the most romantic landscapes in nature—the sublime effect of the great Waterfall of Donass, softened by the sound of flutes and other musical instruments—Lord Mornington's beautiful glee of "Listen to yon waterfall," exquisitely performed, and upon the very spot where it either was or ought to have been written—all this would have carried the mind too far into the region sylphs, and fays and fairies, but that the constant passing through the corridor of lovely forms in muslin, and with the more valuable and substantial properties of flesh and blood, restored the mind by substituting one distraction in the place of another.

The supper was every thing the season or the country could afford—upon those occasions nothing is so refreshing, nothing so inspiring as Champaigne—it sparkled to every eye, and every eye returned the salute—it inspired new spirit for the dance—and after the break of day was announced by the glee of "Hark the Lark at Heav'n's gale sing," the company repassed the corridor to the ball-room, where the dance was resumed, and continued till the Sun, in the fullness of his lustre, dispelled those luminaries of the night.

At this Fete, besides the Countesses of Glandore and Clare, and Lady Denny—were numbered Mistresses—Bayley, Debsborough, Bolton Waller, Croker, Arthur, Fitz Gibbons, Blennerhassett, Penefather, Henry Bayley, Austin Campbell, Cox, Blake, Kirwan, Gough, Ryves, Copley, Ormsby, Roysse, O'Grady's, Smyths, Van-deleur, Brazier, Wilkinson, M. O'Brien, &c. &c. &c.

Misses—Crokens, Fitz Gibbon, Bayley, Penefather, Hickman, O'Brien, of Dromoland, O'Grady, Brazier, Ormsby, O'Brien, of Newcastle, Shepherd, Copley, Graves, Goughs, Morgell, Hawtreys, and the Misses Hemsworths, whose musical talents gave so much effect to the entertainment of the evening.

The Races of Tralee will commence on Thursday 17th September.

Tuesday, Sir Richard Harte, Mayor, held an inquest on the body of the unfortunate man who hung himself, as stated in our last—Verdict, Lunacy.

Yesterday, 2 troops of the 5th Dragoon Guards marched hence for Gort, where they are to do duty; and this morning one troop proceeded for Loughrea.

On Friday last, the Right Hon. Earl Donogh-more and the Hon. A. H. Hutchinson, arrived in Cork from Knocklofty.

Last Thursday, James Earaght, servant to Mr.
 Condon, of Scart, in this county going to shoot crows, unfortunately shot himself thro' the body, and expired same night.

Last Monday night a young man engaged in an affray near the Mail-coach Office in Cork, sustained a dreadful fracture of his skull; he was conveyed to the North Infirmary in that city, and trepanned, with, little hopes of recovery.

The Assizes for the City of Cork has terminated, and proved what is termed a maiden assizes, no capital conviction having taken place.—The business of the County closed on Monday. The following convictions took place: Thomas Conner, manslaughter, to be burned in the hand, imprisoned ten days, and to give security for his future good behaviour.—James Condon, burglary and robbery, to be hanged the 14th September next.
 —Richard Gallivan, robbery, to be imprisoned 3 months: Denis Hurley, manslaughter, to be burned in the hand, imprisoned 6 months, and to give security for his future good behaviour.

Friday last, John Downes, Esq. Surveyor of Excise, on his arrival from the county Galway, seized in Eanis, a quantity of smuggled brandy, which he lodged in his Majesty's store.

Extract of a letter from Castlebar.
 "The trial of the soldiers of the Royal Lion."

DEATHS.—Monday last, at Ballysgran, in this county, much regretted, the Rev. Maurice Walsh, P. P. of Pheenagh.—Saturday last in Waterford, William Higginbotham, Esq. Surgeon of the Waterford Militia, since the formation of the regiment.—Friday last, in Roscrea, John Litwill, Esq.—Wednesday, in said town, Miss Talbot.— At Balbriggan, suddenly, Jordan Roche, Esq.— On Sunday last, in Cork, Swithin White, Esq.— Wednesday, at Kilnap, near Cork, Alderman W.
 Butler.—On the 17th inst. at Cove, Lieut. Hay, of the 4th Veteran Battalion.—On Sunday last in Kiltrush, Mrs. Trousell, relict of Thomas Trous-dell, of Carrudoty, co. Clare, Esq.

LIMERICK MARKET PRICES.

	s.	d.	s.	d.
Wheat, _____	1	11½	to	2	0
Oats, _____	0	11	to	0	11½
English Barley, _____	0	9½	to	0	10½
Bere, _____	0	9	to	0	0
Potatoes, _____	0	9½	to	0	4
Price of Rapeseed	20s.	per barrel,	of 16 stone.
NEW BUTTER.
In Tubs	94s.	90s.	84s.	76s.
Firkins,	96s.	92s.	86s.	78s.

} Per Stone

BARGAINS.
HAWKSLEY AND CO.
From No. 9, Parliament-street, Dublin, BEG leave to inform the Public, that they intend to close their Ware-Room, No. 2, George's-street, on or before Monday next, during which period they will dispose of the remaining Stock on hand at reduced prices, which consists of an elegant variety of SILVER, PLATED WARE, CUT-LERY, &c. &c.: viz: tea and coffee urns, coffee pots, tea pots, sugars and ewers in sets, table candlesticks and branches, card candlesticks, snuffers and trays, bread baskets, cruit-stands, liqueur-stands, covered dishes with or without stands, 4-prong forks, table, desert, tea and coffee spoons, white ivory and natural black handled knives and forks with real Dublin manufactured blades, razors, penknives and scissors, of the very best quality—every article warranted.
 N. B.—The highest price given for Old Silver, either in cash or exchange. Limerick; 21st Aug. 1807

Desirable Country Residence.
TO BE LET,
From the 29th September, or 25th of March next.
 For three Lives, with or without a Fine.
THE HOUSE and DEMESNE of PROSPECT, within a mile of Castle-Connell and five of Limerick, beautifully situated on the Shannon; with ample right of Fishery, Turbary, &c. &c.
 The House and Offices are in the best order, and the Garden and Plantations in the most flourishing state. The Land is suitably divided, has been lately top-dressed, and is for the most part good Meadowing; any number of Acres from 45 to 88 can be had with the House, and a reasonable time will be given for payment of the Fine, and for any part of the Stock or Farming Utensils, the Tenant may be desirous of. Proposals to Mr. O'SHEA, Prospect, or Limerick.
 August 21, 1807

DANCING.
MR. REA begs leave to return his best thanks to his Friends and the Public, for the distinguished patronage he has been favoured with in this City, and the County adjacent.—Assures them, with the confidence of years; that he has omitted no exertion to attain a full and perfect knowledge of his profession, under the most approved Masters in London, Bath, and Dublin, from the last of which he is just returned.
 Mr. REA solicits a continuance of public favour, and is determined, with the assistance of his Brother, to observe the greatest regularity and strictness in attendance.
 Ladies and Gentlemen desirous of modern improvement, can have a few lessons at their houses, or instructed at his Room in Patrick-street.
 Vacation will end on Monday 24th Instant.
 Attendance in the Country as usual, any where within the distance of 30 miles by the Visit.
 Limerick, 21st Aug 1807