ome respectable KERRY was surpose of conning parliament of tithes. The spicuous speech riety of appoinnto their consitition, which he g: If they coabstance of that hat this meeting e supported the referring to the ch, seconded the ch, he adverted ble Ecclesiastics the honor to be a unanimous in whereby tithes could be paid in oppressive to the eding would re-peech he alluded m, the necessity adelicacy of agithis awful crisis, ion for referring e.

cuth, eloquence

General to meet these Corps on a Day rendered auspicious by the arrival of accounts of the Surrender of Copenhagen—an Achievement that reflects the highest honor on the national character of the United Kingdom, by the glorious display of Humanity, Wisdom, and Bravery.

Lieueenant-General Floyd will not fail to report to General the Earl of Harrington, Commander of the Forces, his most favourable opinion of the Corps that paraded this Day; and he has no doubt but his Lordship will represent them accordingly to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant.

BIRTHS.

J. FLOYD, Lieut.-Gen.

A few days ago, at Abington-Globe, the lady of the Rev. Edward Lloyd, Rector of Abington, of a son.

At Hilton, England, on the 2d instant, Mrs. Colonel Deas, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Wednesday last, Richard Scott, Esq of Dublin, Attorney, to the amiable and agreeable Mrs. Leake, relict of the late Richard Leake, Esq. of that city

At Hopton Wafers, Shropshire, Mr Richard Golightly, of Liverpool, Merchant, to Miss M. Skelhorne, daughter of the late Mr. Skelhorne, of Liverpool.

In December last, at Madras, Charles Marsh, Esq. Barrister at Law, Advocate of the Supreme Court of Judicature, to Miss Lewin, daughter of Thomas Lewin, Esq. of Ridgeway, Southampton.

DEATHS.

In Dublin, the Hon. Mrs. Brice, wife of Edward Brice of Kilroot House, in the county of Antrim, Esq. and eldest daughter of the Right Hon. Lord Ventry.

Tuesday last, in Mary-street, aged 77 years, Mr. John Barry, staymaker.

On the 3d inst. of a decline, at his father's house, Gloucester-place, London, John C. Fitzgerald, Esq. only son of John Fitzgerald, Esq.

On the 8th instant, aged 20, Miss Margaret Frances Ogle, daughter of Col. Ogle, of Walton-upon-Thames, Surrey

At her father's house, Camden-place, Bath, Miss Isabella Courtney.

STOREY is, as usual, supplied with a large stock of Old Malt Whiskey, for Housekeepers.

MONEY WANTED.

Parish of St. Michael, want to Borrow, on the security of the Act of Parliament passed for that purpose, the Sum of TWO THOUSAND POUNDS, in Sums of not less than One Hundred Founds each.

Patrick-street, who will point out the advantageous nature of the Security.

Limerick, Sept. 11, 1807

WANTED,

A FURNISHED HOUSE by the Month.—Application to be made to Major OSBORNE, George's-street.

Limerick, Sept. 11, 1807

STRETCH AND O'SHEA

A RE now landing at the Custom-House Quay, a select parcel of PORT WINE, per the Thomas and Sally, Captain Butler, direct from OPORTO, which they will dispose of on pleasing terms.

They have also for Sale, a Parcel of WHISKEY, of the best Quality at a reduced price. Spirit Retailers, &c. will find it their interest to deal with them.

Moira-street, Limerick, May 12, 1807

CORK ROYAL MAIL-COACH OFFICE.

A COACH will Start for CORK by Mallow and Charleville, from the COMMERCIAL BUILDINGS, LIMERICK, every Morning at Six o'Clock, from and after Monday the 10th August, and from SCOTI'S Hotel, George's-street, CORK, every Day at the same Hour, and reach Limerick at Six o'Clock in the Evening,

There is a part of this Coach particularly adapted for the conveyance of small parcels.

Limerick, Slat July, 1807

ed, or by any such warrant or non-comma aforesaid, and also the rewards herein beforing, assisting, or guarding as aforesaid, she distributed among the commissioners, and commissioned officers and privates actually zure, or personally aiding and assisting, commissioned and warrant, and non-command privates of the regiment, battation or coshall belong, in the following proportions; the commissioned, and warrant, and officers and privates actually present at personally aiding and assisting, guarding an encouragement for their exertion and lowing shares—

Privates, Drummers, and Trumpeters, Corporals - -Serjeants - - -Staff Serjeants Quarter-Masters of Dragoons Subalterns Captains, Majors, and Lieutenant-Color of the next superior rank respectively And to the remaining Commissioned Of of the Regiment, Battalion, or Con shares :-Privates, Drummers, and Trumpeters Corporals Serjeants Staff Serjeants Quarter-Masters of Dragoons Second Lieutenants, Cornets, Ensigns, Masters of Horse having Commission Lieutenants - - -Captains -Major -Lieutenan-Colane Colonel

And his Majesty is thereupon further and direct, and doth hereby order and Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Tomander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces, at War respectively, do forthwith condirections to be given herein as to their appertant.

¥