

The ostentatious of Bonaparte pursues our commerce to every part of the world within his influence. The importation of all articles of English manufacture is strictly prohibited at the Havannah, and the same measure will, no doubt, be extended to all the Spanish settlements. The rage of the American populace against this country has very much abated. It appears that they would now be contented with the punishment of Adm. Berkley, and the freedom of their ships of war from search of every description.

These papers represent the English as afraid of an attack upon Canada, in case of a rupture with France. Preparations were making to put Quebec in the best possible state of defence.

We stated yesterday the unpleasant intelligence that had been received from India.

It was at a fete, given by the lady of Sir John Cradock, that the Sepoys meant to murder the British officers.

The plot was discovered by some persons who heard the wives of the Sepoys entreating their husbands to desist from their horrible design; in consequence of which the ringleaders were taken into custody.

We have not been able to learn any farther particulars.

We understand that the London Distillery Company are to commence their extensive Works on those spacious premises lately occupied in the same line at Vauxhall.

The crew of the ketch Alexander, Wm. Taylor master, wrecked on the coast of Barbary in Jan. last, are redeemed, and are all safe at Algesiras, under the care of the Consul, who has shewn them every attention after their misfortune.

 severe a beating, that he now lies dangerously ill, with little hopes of recovery.
