

the Hon. Edward Massy, arrivfrom Chester, England.

Lieutenant-Colonel Odell, one of representatives in the Imperial Par-for Mullingar, to join his regi-

Lieutenant-Colonel the Rt. Hon.
Light of Kerry, arrived at Ballinroddery, and to join his regiment, at second battalions of the regiments, are under orders for this country.

of foot which were on their to Dublin barracks, have until further or-

from Cashel to re-Army.

inst. a paragraph appeared in some Papers, stating a "Wm. Richards, Methodist Preacher, who was conabominable offence, stood in the day, opposite to Hicks's Hall, Cler, &c."—It must be a matter of serious of all denominations, to nature so wretchedly degraded, and with the pure precepts of the public are hereby assured published by the Methodists for and a recent letter from London able person in Dublin, that said was a Preacher in connexion with John Wesley.

on the 17th inst. departed this John Mac Donnell, many years Com-of the late Invalid Corps of that garrison, 60 of which were dedicated to his and his honorable and numerous scars testimony to the fidelity of his service. his military career as acting aid-of the late Lord Loudon, in the memo-of Bergen-op-Zoom, in 1747, and in most of the celebrated actions in campaigns. He was, perhaps, the of the heroes who, with the immortal of the Heights of Abraham with their was the officer who rescued the French in-chief, Montcalm, when sinking un-from the rage of an infuriated roused to madness by the death of their General; by the papers, &c. which he secured in the French General's port-rendered to his country an obligation of national importance. He afterwards for several years, the troops in the Newfoundland. It is but a small tribute memory to state, that no officer of his rank more honored with the friendship of all of society, more esteemed for the urbanity manners, or more universally beloved or ed.

evenings since, an Irish PRIVATEER fell an English MERCHANT—MAN, in the of Dame-court, Dublin, and having taken in tow, into one of those convenient creeks which that coast abounds, plundered him of valuable lading, and turned him adrift.— The buccaneer was afterwards chased and captured, property recovered, and the Pirate brought port, where she will probably remain until adjudicated, and probably condemned.

6 puncheons rum, Dennis Lyons,	174	0	0
140,000 staves, by do.	4	1	8
Hope from Liverpool.
40 bags wick yarn, J. N. Russell,		free
35,000 staves, Harvey and Fisher,	2	1	0
68 tons coals, J. M. Creagh,	5	5	0
50 crates glass, Stretch and O'Shea,	14	9	0
19 bundles steel, M. O'Neill,	5	8	6
1 case hats, M. Birmingham,	4	9	5
3 crates earthenware, J. Fitzpatrick,	3	6	2 Thistle from Liverpool.
20 barrels potashes, Harvey and Fisher,		free
5 crates earthenware, G. Goodfellow,	2	11	6
4 hds Muscovado sugar, W. & G. Russell,	78	7	2
2 casks iron ware, Arthur & O'Hara,	21	16	6
1 do. do. Silvester Sarsfield,	5	14	9
8 crates earthenware, E. Harrison,	5	14	2
72500 staves, J. Kearney, and Co.	2	15	10

EXPORTS.
Britannia for Greenock—1243 barrels oats, by R. Rodger.
Woodbine for London—20 tons of butter, 600 tierces beef, Dennis Lyons.

COMMITTALS.
By Michael Furnell, Esq. to the county gaol, Patrick Cahill, Thomas Cognev and James Tavis, labourers, charged with disturbing the peace of this county

BIRTHS.
Friday night, at Lock-quay, the lady of H. Russell, esq.
of a daughter.
In the Fontaine Buildings, the lady of John Tuthill, Esq. of a son.

MARRIAGES.
Thomas Hawkshaw, Esq. Colonel of the 22d regiment of native infantry, Bengal establishment, to the daughter of Robt.
Percival, of Knights-brooke, co. Meath.
At Winchelsea, H. E. Allen, Esq. of Bath Hampton, Som-erseshire, to Miss Fanny Lloyd, second daughter of Thos Lloyd, of the Friars, Winchelsea.
A few days since, at Ballinacourty, co. Waterford, G.
Loneragan, esq. M. D. of Dungarvon, to Miss Longan.
At Oulart, co. Wexford, Mr. M. Reily, aged 85, to Miss Margaret Boyce, aged 60.
At Clondalkin, Hill Wilson, Esq. of Abbey-st. to Miss Reeves, of Clare-st. Dublin.
Wm. Bourke, Esq. to Miss M. A. Egan, of Longhrea.
In Dublin, a few days since, Stuart Campbell, Esq. Capt. in his Majesty's 42d, or Royal Highland Regt. to the amiable Mrs. Douglas, relict of Adam Douglas, Esq. M. D. and daughter of the late James Nash, Esq. of Parteen, near this city.
In London, Mr. Hughes, of Finsbury-square, to Miss Bish, of Corn-hill.
Last week, at Corlestow, Lieut. Bray of the Royal Navy, to Miss Tyler, only daughter of Mr. Tyler of Southtown Cottage.

DEATHS.
A few days ago, in Cork, in the 90th year of his age, Croker Barrington, Esq. formerly of this city—a gentleman who, thro' a well-spent life, lived respected and esteemed; his manners were elegant and conciliatory, his temper placid and uniform, and with the purest sentiments of religion and profound reverence and resignation to the will of the Divine Being, he expired without a groan.
Mr. Geo. Challoner, of Clonmel, land-surveyor.
In Cork, after a short illness, Mr. John Burton, manager of Miss Linwood's celebrated gallery of pictures.
In Killarney, on Monday last, after a tedious illness, most sincerely lamented, Mrs. Ruesell, wife of Francis Russell Esq. of that town, and sister to the late S. Crump, Esq. M. D. of this city; a lady possessed of every amiable and good quality, that could tend to adorn and exalt the female character.

ELEGANT UNFURNISHED LODGINGS, TO BE LET, ON CHARLOTTE'S-QUAY.
Apply at the Post Office.
Limerick, Nov. 3.

NOTICE.
A MEETING of the INHABITANTS of the Parish of ST. MICHAEL'S, will be held at the COMMERCIAL BUILDINGS, at the hour of two o'clock on Friday next the 6th inst. for the purpose of considering the most effectual legal method of RESISTING the proceedings again taking, for establishing a power of levying Poundage in the said Parish.
November 3, 1807.

Under shall meet every accommodation.
After the sale of the lands, the interest in the Denmark-street, of which there is a lease of five for ever; and of a small field near John's-gate, in the Commercial Buildings, will be disposed of —It is requested that those who intend to bid for above concerns will attend, as the object is to close on that day. Limerick, Nov.

WANTED A STORE CLERK
Who understands the Corn and Flour and can be well recommended APPLY AT THE OFFICE OF THIS Limerick

WANTED A GOVERNESS
WHO can be well recommended—she must be well versed in English and French grammatically, all kinds of plain and fancy work—a liberal salary will be given to be made at the Office of this Paper.

SOAP AND CANDLE WARE-H
Nor 8, BROAD-STREET.

WILLIAM CARROLL,
BEGS leave to inform his friends and the public that he has arrived to him per the North Star, M-L from Bristol, a large supply of the best Double Gloucester Cheese, Wick-Yarn, Button Blue and Tobacco Pipe all of which he will dispose on very reasonable terms. HE is usual supplied with the best White Soap, Mould and Dipped Candles, Cotton and Yarn, Button, Stone and Powder Blues, Malt Cheese, American Pot-ashes, 1st quality, Grave An APPRENTICE of genteel connections taken. a. Limerick.

NAVY PAY OFFICE,
London, Oct. 10

NOTICE is hereby given to all disabled S seamen who have been discharged from His Majesty's N to the families of seamen who are now serving, representatives of deceased seamen who were in the by applying to the Protestant ministers in every Ireland, the wives and relations of living seamen, informed how the seamen now serving, may allot of their pay, or make partial remittances from time to time to their wives, parents, or other relations—and honoraries of deceased seamen may receive the w the time of the death of each. With respect to p due to discharged seamen, or to the representatives who are dead, application must be made "to th of the Navy, London," by whom, or by whos all letters from the parties will be answered, an sary information given.

By the Lord Lieutenant General and General C Ireland.—A Proclamation.

WHEREAS his Majesty's service doth at this time require a speedy supply of Seamen and Seafaring M his Majesty's Fleet which is now fitting out. W his Majesty's Command, direct and require all Civi in this part of his Majesty's United Kingdom cal to use their best endeavours to cause all such Sea faring Men, fit for his Majesty's service, as may to be taken up, and sent on board any of his Ma or vessels in the Ports, or on the Coast of Ireland of his Majesty's Sea Officers who may be employ men on shore for his Majesty's Fleet, according where such ships or vessels, or such Sea Officers actively stationed shall be nearest. And for the ment of the Persons who shall be entrusted with conducting such Seamen and Seafaring Men, to paid by the Captain or Commander of such ship or Sea Officer employed on shore as aforesaid, a reward of twenty shillings for each Sea or Sea fit for his Majesty's service, and sixpence a mile they may have travelled, not exceeding two the maritime counties, and forty miles in the inla And we do hereby further direct and require th Magistrates to give all possible countenance and the Officers of his Majesty's ships and vessels, c Officers who may be employed to raise Men c impressing, or otherwise procuring Men for h Fleet.—Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dubl day of March, 1803.—By His Excellency's com
A, MA