Thursday, the 2d inst. the Assizes for the County ity of Londonderry commenced before the Hon.
Osborne and the Hon. Justice Mayne. At nine Justice Mayne swore the following Jury:— ht Hon. Sir G. F. Hill, Bart. Foreman, Geo. Can-Robert Bynge, John C. Wresford, Robt. Ogilby, Bahington, Marcus M'Gage, Andw. Knox, Langeyland, James Sterling, Thomas Scott, of Wills-James Ross, Wm. Ham. Ash, Thomas Scott, of hill, Hugh Lyle, Conolly M'Causland, Andw. Fer-Samuel Curry, John Ross, John Miller, George er, and James Hamill, Esqrs.

Although the business occupied the Jury until a our on Saturday, nothing very important occurred, t that the Judge was pleased to bill all present-t for Bridges and Pipes, where more than one r or pipe was included in the same estimate. The made great remonstrance, and urged former pro-down to and including the last preceding Assizes, he learned Judge would not vary in his decision, signed as reasons the inlet to perjury and the fraud the stamp-duties.

A female was acquitted of the murder of her infant and some murmurs were expressed on the subject linquents escaping from want of prosecution, which ascribed to the Attorney General's aversion to ining the heavy expence heretofore brought upon the try, by the Crown taking up prosecutions too rally.

In the Civil Court there were twelve Records, one of h only created much interest.—It was an action for h of Promise of Marriage, brought by a Miss ormigoll against a Major Smyth. The promise correspondence wherein the action was founded, place several years ago, and before the Defendant attained to his present rank in the army. It was that an offer of £1000 was made the evening before rial, and on that sum being rejected, an offer of mar-was also made and rejected. The Jury found a ct for the Lady.—Damages £2000.

A case which produced much interest, not only tst the Gentlemen of the Bar, but in the County erary at large, was tried last Friday, at Clonmell, e the Right Hon. Lord Norbury and a special Jury. was an Ejectment on the demise of the Earl of Or-de and others, to evict a lease made by the late Earl omas Lalor, in the year 1783, of the lands of gs, on the ground that it was void as against the ors of the Plaintiff, the maker of it (the late Earl) ng been but tenant for life, with a leasing power for ears only, under the will of Mr. John Butler, of ash, by which the present Lord Ormonde holds what lled the Kilcash estate, and the Lease to Mr. Laborz for 3 Lives. The defence set up was, that the of the Ormonde family was under a will made by the John Butler, in the year 1754, and not established y the Plaintiffs under his will, made in the year 1764. oth these wills appeared in evidence, and the only rence between them was, that by the first will, the es were devised to the grand-father of the present for life, with remainder to the late Earl for life, remainder to his issue in tail male, but with such a ng power as would have upheld the demise to Mr. r; and by the other will (alleged by the plaintiff's e of the last will) although the same limitations were e of the estates, yet the testator had only given the rent tenants for life a leasing power for 21 years, in-r, as was supposed, to compensate the remainder for his having charged the estates with legacies to amount of £22,500 in favour of his heirs at law, reas by the will of 1754, he had not bequeathed any cies whatever.

The object of the Defendant was not to invalidate andlord's title, but to shew, that he held, under will that gave the most extended leasing power, and accomplish this, he endeavoured to prove the incon-nency of the testator at the time of making the will 1764.

...able contrast, to visit this City in the course of a few weeks—they purpose a tour through the South of Ireland, embracing Mount Shannon, Newcastle (Co. Limerrick,) Killarney, Castlemartyr, Rostellan Castle, the City of Cork, &c. &c. The party will consist of the Duke and Duchess of Richmond and suite, Lady Mary Lenox, Earl March, Sir Chas. Vernon, Capt. Ready, &c.

The return of Lord Harrington to Dublin, is daily expected. Col. Gordon has already arrived.—General Floyd is accordingly, we understand, preparing to leave Dublin, for Cork, in order to resume the command of that district.

Of six Young Gentlemen who entered Dublin College, last Autumn, from Fermoy School, and who composed the First Class which that Establishment has yet had time to send thither, we have pleasure in remarking, for the honor of the South of Ireland, that four have already obtained Premiums in the course of the year, of which two were January Premiums; that one Gentleman has obtained a Certificate; and that another would have gained the like distinction, had he not unfortunately come too late for admission into the Hall, the second morning of the examinations.

Sunday, an Ordination was held in Tralee church, by the Lord Bishop of Limerick, when the Rev. Edward Close was ordained a Priest, and Messrs. Wm. Palmer, Robt. Hickson, Thomas Collis, Bastable Herbert, and Robt. Conway Hurly, were ordained Deacons.

Wednesday evening, the Right Rev. Lord Bishop of Limerick returned to the See House, after holding his Annual Visitation for the Diocese of Ardferd & Aghadoe, and visiting the Churches in that quarter. His Lordship will hold his Annual Visitation for this Diocese, at the Cathedral in Limerick, on Thursday next.

Thursday night, Mr. Waters, Revenue Officer, and a detachment from the North Cork militia, detected an unlicensed still at full work, on the Lands of Glonagrass, barony of Bunratty, Co. Clare, near this City—after spilling near 200 gallons of singlings, they proceeded to Fennis with the still, worm, and a quantity of malt, which they lodged in the King's stores.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.—Thursday, 27th July last was the day appointed for the Produce Stakes of 1805, which were run for at Rathkeale on that day, and won by Mr. Croker's chestnut colt by Champion, beating Mr.
H. Bateman's bay filly by Sir Peter—2 to 1 on Mr.
Croker's colt, 25 gs. 15 ft.—The meeting was numerous and respectable—five other horses paid forfeit, viz.

ductress by Sir Sidney, a ch. c. G. Fishery. Lady Betty by Grant (no produce) G. B. Bateman. Gr. m. Crazy Jane by Solher, a c. G. Wrenthamsett.

Tuesday last, the Molly, of Workington, Pentice, sailed from Cove in ballast, for this port.

His Majesty's brig Jarrier, Lieut. Langhrane, was lost on the coast of Calcutta the 10th September, 1805, and every soul on board perished.

Birth.—The Lady of Alex. Shearer, Esq. of Swanmore House, Hants, of a son.
