 SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.—Yesterday a P. P. bet of 50 guineas, was run for over Lemonfield course near this city, the best of three mile heats, carrying 11 stone, and rode by Gentlemen, between Edward Crips, Esq.
 Kilpearson, and Hugh Massy, jun. Glenville, Esq.; won by Hugh Massy, Esq.—Three heats, as follow: Hugh Massy's brown mare, 5 years old, rode by Edw. Massy, Esq. 1 2 1 Edward Crips's brown mare, rode by himself, 2 1 2
 Excellent running, the odds at starting rather in favor of Mr. Massy—after the 1st heat, 5 to 1—after the 2d heat, 2 to 1 on Mr. Crips's mare.—The heats were run in great style and well contested, and on the whole affarded excellent sport to the spectators.
