Riordan.

The body of the unfortunate Laur. Trainer, whose murder we stated in our last, was taken up on Saturday last, on the beach of Farraby, nearly opposite the cliff, from which it was concluded he had been thrown into the sea; and an Inquest held thereon before George Studdert, of Atlantic Lodge, Esq. when the Jury returned a Verdict—"That the deceased was murdered by Thomas Killeen."

At an early hour this morning, a gang of armed villains broke into the house of Michael Marsh, farmer, on the lands of Kilmore, parish of Killageady, in the county of Clare (within four miles of this City) and after breaking open the boxes belonging to the family, robbed him of some bank notes, and all the property he possessed.

Shortly after a gang, supposed to be the same, forcibly entered the house of the Steward belonging to Counsellor O'Regan, at Rossmadda;—and after depriving him of every article of property, swore that if his master did not give up that Farm, and himself leave the neighbourhood, that they would shortly murder himself, and burn his dwelling.

A meeting of the Governors of the House of Industry will be held at said House, on Tuesday next at 12 o'clock.

This day the Right Worshiptful John Crips, Esq.
Mayor, sent 80 loaves of bread to the House of Industry, and distributed 20 loaves to indigent room-keepers;— they were seized by the Market Jury.
