

... had brought up his daughter into the character of the plaintiff, entered into his clerkship, and shew- truly respectable; and that since he husband, he was a truly affectionate returned with equal affection by until she became acquainted with who was a married man. He then different kind of adult-ries, and con- sone of the worst cases that had ever owledge, and he was convinced that be of the same opinion, when they were. The parties were friends—the orney, assisting the defendant, a young giving him briefs, an intimacy took their families, which the defendant wives were seldom separated. The eral, in a most eloquent speech, full of ment, but to which, from the length e are obliged not to do that justice s would incline us to do, expatiated tances of the case. He concluded by e damages were laid in the indictment. he was certain, when the Jury were of the facts, they would conceive it ; he would not have mentioned the ages, only he expected he would not unity of addressing them again: as he e honor of the profession, that wit- ot be examined on the part of the de- was sensible if it was left to the discre- ned Friend, Mr. Park, he would make all that eloquence which he so emi- ed, on the subject of damages, and Jury. He then proceeded to examine when after hearing a number on both orough said, that it would not be ne- n to trespass long upon their attention. tion was, whether any criminal inter- ken place? To this point it had been e defendant had taken lodgings in Old where he frequently met Mrs. Faun- ree times a week;—the act of crimi- dom proved; and certainly, taking else name, and on a foolish story, such strong circumstance. The whole tex- ry went to prove, how mean a measure r people's understandings, and how his own. With respect to the evi- in mitigation, he said, that, upon a circumstance of the case, he was al- o think that the crime of adultery was e of perjury and defamation, by which ed to be overturned. What damages y was for them to determine. tired for some time, and returned with e plaintiff, of EIGHT THOUSAND h Costs.

rim. Con. Cause, Boyd v. White, da- and for £200.

DUBLIN, DECEMBER 14.

ng is an extract of a letter which has from America;—
NEGOCIATION at Wash- is interesting subject, the only addi- ce we have received is the following n the United States Gazette of Friday e seen a letter from a respectable de- at Baltimore, stating, as a report e first authority, that Mr. Jackson had the Secretary of State, informing him, agree to settle on the terms stipulated e, provided our Government would n-Intercourse Act to the ports of Hol- those of France."

strong's dispatches by the Wasp, d accomplished nothing with the Go- rance, and despaired of accomplish-opened in April, by Mr. A. Cherry, late of Dublin.

 The Rev. Mr O'Callaghan has been elected Master of the School of Kilkenny, by the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College.

James Hartwell, A. B. having undergone the usual examination, was admitted a Licentiate of the Royal College of Surgeons, Ireland.

We deem it right to state, that the Treasurers of all infirmaries or Hospitals are, under the provisions of an Act of Parliament lately passed, obliged yearly to return upon oath, to the Commissioners of Imprest Accounts, to be by them audited and laid before the Lord Lieutenant, a full statement of the receipts and expeniture of their Infirmaries or Hospitals for the year ending on the 25th of December, as also the names of all the Governors, distinguishing such annual Governors, as have paid up their subscription, from the Governors in arrear.

Robert Leslie, Esq. Captain of the Tarbert Infantry, is appointed by his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, Captain Commandant of the Tarbert Yeomanry, vice Sir Edw. Leslie, Bart. resigned.

Wednesday night a Villain or Villains attempted to break into the Post-Office of this City, but were prevented by the security of the iron work which was adjacent to some bricks they had removed.

Last night the Shop of Mr. M'Mahon, Spirit Retailer, at Mungret-lane, was broken into and robbed of Cash, and sundry articles.

Mr. James Shaughnessy has given notice in the Dublin Gazette, of having lately planted 8010 timber trees, on the lands of Ballybricken, Barony of Clanwilliam, in this County, the estate of the late Hugh Ingoldesby Massey, Esq.

Mrs. Mary Collins has planted 420 timber trees, on the lands of Duhallow, Co. Cork, part of the estate of the late Ralph Marshall, Esq.

Thomas Molloy, Esq. has planted 17402 timber trees, on the lands of Drinnoyle, King's County.

Admiral Whited was expected to leave London on Tuesday last, on his return to his station off the South of Ireland.

His Majesty's ship Virginia, Capt. Brace, has sent into Plymouth a prize, the American ship Amiable, Capt. Hedeltus, of and from Philadelphia, to St. Sebastian's, with a valuable cargo.

His Majesty's ship Phenix, Capt. Mudge, is shortly expected at Cork. She is placed, we understand, on that station.

The Commerce, Callalway, sailed from London, for this port, the 9th instant.

BIRTH.—At his Lodgings, Bank-Place, the Lady of Thomas Morony, Jun. Esq. of Miltown-House, County Clare, of a Son and Heir. —In Lon'on, the Lady of Col. Newbury, of a daughter.—The Lady of Robert Kerr, Esq. of a daughter.

MARRIED.—In Youghal, Mr. Lawton Earnes, of Castlemaryr, Co. Cork, to Miss Boies, daughter of Thos. Boies, Esq.

DIED.—In London, Mrs. Amelia Howorth, the wife of Brigadier-General Howorth, now on service in Spain; she was sister of Lord Thurlow.—On Thursday last, at his father's seat, (Summerville) in this County, very senerely lamented, William Harney, Esq. youngest son of John Harney, Esq.

MARKET PRICES.—Wheat, 1s. 8d. to 2s. 5d. per stone.—Barley, 16½d. to 16¾d.—Oats, 13d to 13½d per stone.—Pork, 40s. per cwt.—Flour, per cwt. 2d, 27s. 0d to 31s. 0d.; 3d, 20s. to 24s.—4th, 15s. to 16s.—Oatmeal, 18s. to 20s per ct.—Potatoes, 3½d to 4d per stone.—Beef 5s. to 6d.—Mutton 6d. to 6½d per lb.

Firkins,	100s.	96s.	90s.	82s.	} Per
Coarse Casks,	98s.	94s.	88s.	80s.

A Meeting of the principal ROMAN CATHOLICS of this City, will take place at the COMMERCIAL BUILDINGS on FRIDAY next, at ONE o'Clock, to consider of a Petition to Parliament for the Repeal of existing disqualifications. Dec. 16, 1809.

tent Barrel Organs, Patent Flutes, Clarinets, Tamborines, &c.; variety of particularly the Songs sung by Mr. BRADLIN—all kinds of old instruments taken in Piano Fortes repaired in the best manner for hire—Military Bands supplied with instruments, and on the most reasonable terms.
 Limerick,

GOOD STANDIN

FOR 50 to 100 COWS or BULLS within five Miles of Limerick, there is a large quantity of excellent WATSON and MAHONY King's-Ar-

26 AUCTION OF PO

TO be Sold by Public Auction, 28th inst. for Account of the U Stores of Messrs. GREHAN, BLAKE, & Co. Three Hundred Barrels of Being part of the Cargo of the B from Limerick to London, and pu distress.

Terms at sale, and the Port can be previous thereto, by Applying at Blake, and Fitz-Gerald's Office, in B

EDWARD CO

Daily expects at his Stores, Sir A LARGE SUPPLY NEWFOUNDLAND OIL AN With which he will be constan Limerick,

BENJAMIN BAYNH

WATCH & CLOCK

MOST respectfully informs, that he has commenced Business in the EXCHANGE, Market, of CLOCKS & WATCHES.

Watches repaired with Clocks attended by the Vicinity. He trusts, by study to execute commands in the Limerick

WHEREAS on the Night of the hour of 8 o'clock, while for Letters among the crowd at Office, some evil-minded persons, Silver WATCH out of a Pocket Dublin, No. 2792.

A Reward of Two Guineas will bringing same to the Bank of Messr KENNEDY, or to the Office of this tions asked. JAMI

Limerick, Dec. 16, 1809.

STOLEN OR STRA

FROM Elm-Hill, near Broad Street, 11th inst. a large, fat, bracket, horns, the top of the right ear w about 10 years old.—Any person g her, so as that she might be found, at Elm-Hill, or Mr. Thomas Doolony Street, Limerick, shall receive On Guineas for prosecuting the Thief t Dec. 16, 1809. HEN

STOLEN

ON Wednesday Night last, from Limerick, a Reigh Cow, 8 ye and in Calf; the property of PAT will give Two Guineas for the Co prosecuting the Thief to conviction.