

action brought by Mr. Dwyer, Com-Proprietor of the Weekly Messenger, Court of Common Pleas, when damages of 200l. with 6d. costs, were awarded

Co. v. CAMPBELL.—This cause, which much interest among the mercantile body involving in its result the species of evi-to charge a security with any defalcament committed by the person for came on to be heard on Monday in the 's Bench, before the Right Hon. Justice Special Jury. The plaintiff's completely and the Jury, without leaving the box, for 2300 the full amount for which was security.—But, we understand, that consideration of the advanced age and pe-stances of the defendant, as well as the up of the case, generously agreed to renages, and to divide the loss with him.

26.—Thomas Daniher, charged with in the outrages lately perpetrated in this town, was apprehended and com-Ond by the Rev. Samuel Collis. In end this man, against whom strong inforen, Mr. Collis proceeded during Friday e above mentioned place, (about 6 of 7 nerville) where he secured the object of test only by his son, and brother-in-law,

SOUTH-WEST CIRCUIT.

d, at Longford, Monday, March 12.

Notwithstanding the repeated punishments inflicted on Publicans for breach of the SABBATH, no fewer than THIRTEEN of this description were detected in vending Liquors on Sunday last;—the Right Worshipful Mayor is determined to enforce the Penalties; and it is not a little extraordinary that persons will thus persevere in a practice, which exclusive of the impropriety attached to the habit, is felt so seriously in a pecuniary manner.

Nuthal Greene, of Kilmainham, Esq. has been appointed High Sheriff of the Co. Waterford, for the ensuing year.

We are informed that Mr. Michael Walsh, of this city has been appointed a Commissioner of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, for taking affidavits, and also a Commissioner of his Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, to take affidavits and Special Bail.

By the last accounts from Cove, the West India convoy still continued wind-bound. Several transports arrived on Saturday and Sunday morning. Government are sending out immediately from Cork to Portugal, 800 horses for our artillery there. The transports are nearly fitted up for their reception.

His Majesty's hired cutter, Earl Spencer, sailed on Saturday from Cove, with the Perchester E. Indiaman, and several other vessels, for the Downs.

Saturday morning, His Majesty's ship Partridge, Capt. Foot; and next morning, His Majesty's ship Princess Charlotte, Capt. Tobin, arrived in Cork harbour, from Plymouth.

Yesterday an Inquest was held by the Right Worshipful Francis Lloyd, Esq. Mayor, as Coroner, on the body of Thomas Wilson, a lad aged 12 years, belonging to the Jane and Margaret, of Sunderland, Capt.
Vaux, who missed his way on the night of Saturday last, fell into the river at Merchant's-quay, and was unfortunately drowned. The Verdict—"ACCIDENTAL DEATH."

COMMITTED—By Sir Richard Harte, to the City Jail, Margaret Flahavan and Honora Carthy, charged with robbery in the house of Patrick M'Alister, a lad of celebrity in this neighbourhood.
