 a late court martial.—After the usual toasts, the President, Capt. McNeal, gave—the health of Mr. Burge, with hearty thanks for his successful exertions on the late court martial; which was drank with three times three. Mr. Burge, after returning his thanks in a neat and appropriate speech to the company, for the honor they had conferred on him, by proposing his health, and attributing that success to the highly honorable conduct of Lieut. Col. Graves, gave as a toast, "The 18th or Royal Irish regiment, and may they, in war, meet with the success which is due to their valour and military character, and, in peace, with the friendship which is due to their hospitality and social virtues:— After which, "The health of Col. Graves, and may he long command the 18th regiment," was drank with
