Society, County Cork, was held in a field of Mr.
 Oliver's, at Sun Lodge, Little Island, on Friday, when seven ploughs started, and after a very interesting competition, premiums were adjudged.

1st Class—To the best ploughman of any country,
 David Lees, ploughman to Mr. M'Call, of Charterston,
 three guineas.
 2d.—To the best ploughman, a native of the County
 Cork, Michael Stack, ploughman to Mr. B. Brazier,
 three guineas.

3d.—To the best ploughman-apprentice, John Swiney, apprentice to Mr. Hastie, three guineas.

John Nagle distinguished himself, and was awarded two guineas to purchase plough tackling.

Judges of the ploughing:—Thomas Poole, C. S.
 Oliver, and R. R. Aldworth, Esq.

After the Ploughing Match the Members of the Society and visitors present, partook of cold collations prepared by Capt. Oliver, at Sun Lodge, and Mr. Oliver, at Richmond.

Yesterday being Good Friday, was observed in this City with every becoming religious respect—the shops, &c. were shut—the Mayor and Corporation attended at the Cathedral, where a Sermon was preached by the Dean; and the Military went to the several places of Devotion in the vicinity of their Barracks.

To-morrow, being Easter-Day, the Corporation proceed in Regalia to the Cathedral, where a Sermon will be preached by the Lord Bishop.

Since our last publication, the Rt. Worshipful Francis Lloyd, Esq. Mayor, sent to the House of Industry and Hospital for Lunatics, a carcass of Beef, a carcass of Veal, and a bag of Flour, seized by the Market Jury, for which the numerous poor return their grateful thanks.

This day, a most extraordinary large bullock was exposed for sale by Mr. James O'Donoghue, victualler—fed by Edward Singleton, Esq. of Quinville, Co. Clare, on the lands of Ballygrenan—the carcass weighed 14½
 cwt. and produced 14 stone of tallow.
