Our readers will see detailed in the second column of the 2d page of this Chronicle, the Regimental Orders issued respecting an Officer and other Members of the Sherry Yeomanry, in consequence of an inquiry into their conduct for absenting themselves when called upon to attend during the late disturbances in London.

The Deptford Tender, Lieut. Debenham, arrived in the Shannon this week, from Woolwich, for the recep tion of new fitted men and Wms, for his Majesty's Royal Navy. About 30 Able-bodied Volunteers were sent on board from the rendezvous, which were pro mised here within a very short period, under the orders of Captain Norfrey, Regulating Officer in this district.
