

Wellesley, Esq. son of Lord Wellington, was chosen representative for Queenborough, in place of Mr. Hunt. Sir H. Staahope, Part. Admiral, was his opponent, but the close of the poll was for Mr. W. 97, for Sir H. 52. At 10 o'clock on Sunday evening, his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland's wounds had been dressed, it is the opinion, that the two fingers of the right hand will be saved. (Signed) H. HALFOED & HOME. The Bulletin this morning (Monday) is as follows:—The Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland has never been better than any of the preceding, and is free from any disposition this morning, 8 o'clock. (Signed) "B. HOME." Sidmouth is said to have decidedly joined the Administration.

DUBLIN, JUNE 7.

Schedule to the New Stamp Act now expediting in Parliament is of the most comprehensive kind. Bills of every sort are taxed—Play-house Bills—Bills, &c. &c. through a long series. There is no doubt we understand, has escaped, except Hand-bills, to be sold under Execution, Proclamations, the arresting of felons, and Notices of things lost.

The Court of Exchequer, Dublin, an action was brought by Wm. Smith, a seaman, against A. McClean, in the employment of a mercantile house in London, for severely beating and abusing him while at the cause came on to be tried before the Right Hon. Lord Norbury and a respectable Jury.—Mr. M'Mahon stated the Plaintiff's case. The Jury was tried for a short time, and returned a verdict for the Plaintiff of £500 damages, and 61 costs. The houses in Augier-street, the property of Mr. M'Mahon, and of Mr. Stevens, both painters, were consumed by fire on Sunday last.—From the various matters used in that occupation, the flames spread with violence, and threatened destruction to the street.

PORTAL NEWS FROM AMERICA.

of the Non-Intercourse and Embargo Acts. June 6.—We are extremely happy to have it in our power to communicate the satisfactory intelligence, that the Non-Intercourse and Embargo Acts have been repealed by the American Congress, and that the ports of America are now open to the admission of our ships, and the departure of her own. This information may be relied upon, is supplied by the American steamer, which left New-York on the 24th ult. bound for Liverpool, and passed by this port yesterday, on her return. Impressed with the importance of what she had to communicate, the master of the Pacific comman- ded a Pilot-boat which visited him at sea, a letter from Mr. Thompson, of New-York, to an eminent mercantile house in this City, stating the important fact of the repeal of these restrictive laws, and observing that commerce was accessible to commerce as usual.—C.M.C.
