JUNE 27.—Friday evening, about seven the thatched houses immediately outside ce, in this City, was discovered to be on hstanding the prompt assistance of the the attendance of our Chief Magistrate, e most respectable Inhabitants, amongst cularily noticed Col. Enery, Mr. Skelton, such was the scarcity of water in that ct, and such the dryness of the materials, that the flames were not subdued until e entirely consumed.

JUNE 26.—It is an extraordinary circum- ere are at this time two hogs on fire in the town, whether owing to accident or de- not, but both have proved inextinguish- ected efforts of those persons in their re- bourhoods. One of those is Currovagh her Knockawnagaun, the latter injured f a few of the surrounding crops, and destroy some cabins which it rapidly ap- prevented by a fall of rain. The high ns through it, is occasionally rendered im- oke and flames.

y last, John Bane, Timothy Lawlor and n, were conveyed from the gaol of this ore, where they were flogged pursuant to at the last Spring Assizes.

JUNE 29.—On the night of Sunday last, a rsons of different factions, who had ap- vening for determining the adjustment of animosity, were collected together at a lenarga, in Burren, when doubtless much eedings would have occurred, had it not imely interference of Peter Comyn, Esq. of rter, one of our County Magistrates, who ility of exertion in suppressing such sedi- ns, repaired to the scene of contest, attend- of the German Dragoons, and dispersed —thus succeeding in the restoration of order, probably in preventing the commission of barbarity, which have already we regret to at too frequently observable in that part of
