

Limerick, July 4.

Proprietors of THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

With great reluctance, I reply to Mr. D'Esterre's Publication for a trifling cause, which appeared in your last Paper:—Had I the most distant idea I would have made Mr. D'Esterre write to me, I would have mentioned that sum; however, I was entitled to 10s. I was equally and legally entitled to 4d.

My constant study, since my engagement in my present employment, was to discharge the trust committed to me in this transaction and money matter with fidelity, and render myself accommodable to all concerned.

The place chosen by Mr. D'Esterre for his Publication in your Paper, shews, at first sight, to the most simple reader, his intention.

Myself and my friends and the Public, I declare I never consented to that transaction, to Mr. D'Esterre, or any person so to do. The mistake lay with the person sending me a line, by which I would have been made a man and horse to be his, which, I declare I never saw, till I saw it on your Paper.

Mr. D'Esterre may feel himself hurt as a man of honor; but, on my part, I will never forget that I am a Freeholder and Citizen, independent, at least to myself.—I am, Gentlemen, your very obedient

EDMOND KIDD.

Mr. D'Esterre may have the Crate of Bottles, at any time, to send for them.
