Arnwell v. Price, Bart.—This was an action brought
...the Plaintiff, who was steward or butler to Lord
...y, to recover from the Defendant, styling himself
...Edward O'Bryen Price, Bt. the sum of 126l. being
...paid by the plaintiff, for the Defendant's use. It
...appeared that the defendant, who issued 1l. & 2l. notes,
...Country banker, in Castle-Carey, in Somersetshire,
...introduced himself to the plaintiff, stating his belief,
...the plaintiff's wife and Lady Price were cousins;
...prevailed on him to take his Country Notes in ex-
...change for the Bank of England Notes with which he
...formerly in the use of paying the wages of his fel-
...servants, the accounts of his Lord's tradesmen, &c.
...had even induced him to accept bills for the defen-
...at different times. For one of these bills, amount-
...to 100l. and for Country Banking Notes, under the
...of Sir E. O'Bryen Price and Co. for 1l. and 2l. to
...the nominal value of 26l. more, was this action
...brought, the payment of which on account of the de-
...fendant, being proved by his own letters, the Jury found
...a verdict for the Plaintiff.

Harrison v. Wood, Esq.—This was an action against
...the Sheriff of Middlesex, for having made a false re-
...turn to a writ in execution, of nulla bona. It appeared
...that Mr. John King was indebted to the Plaintiff in the ...sum of £1700 by virtue of a judgment, and that a writ
...issued, directing the Sheriff to levy to that amount
...on the goods of the said Mr. King, but that return of
...Nulla bona, had been made. The Plaintiff having good
...reason to suppose that the goods in the house in which
...Mr. King and his wife resided belonged to the former,
...brought the present action, to recover compensation in
...damages for the alleged false return. It was proved that
...the goods and books in that house situated in Norton-
...street, were bought about six years ago by Lady Lanes-
...borough, and that two and a half years ago, there were
...goods and books in the house to the value of £2000.—
...The writ was executed in April last; and in the May
...following an inventory had been taken by the Sheriff's
...creations, from which it appeared that there were goods
...in the house worth £307, besides books to the number
...of upwards of 1,100, the precise value of which was not
...ascertained.—The Jury returned a verdict for the Plaintiff—
...damages £950.
