John Otway, Earl of Desart, against ward Smyth, Esq. of Callan.

jectment upon title, in which the Noble to break a lease granted by his father, y, Earl of Desart, to Lau. Smyth, Esq.
's father, dated in 1781, and demising the water, in the liberties of Callan, contain-at the rent 42l. 9s. 6d. for 99 years, deon three lives, still in being. The premiorth 600l. a-year. The Plaintiff's Coun-elence of under value, and that the same received by prior leases for many years; circumstances, Mr. Justice Osborne re-evidence as inadmissible. They next alleged he late Earl had a power to grant leases 31 years, yet this lease was not executed of that power, being for 99 years determi-ae lives, that it was therefore informal, at law, even for the residue of 31 years, 1812. To this point they argued forcibly, supported by the authority of several cases deand, some very recently, and upon which jectment had been advised by Counsel of n and eminence in both countries.

However, the Defendant's Counsel product of Parliament to support this lease, of ounsel for the Plaintiff appeared to have unawares, namely, the first of the Acts for the Popery laws, stat. 17 and 18 George sec. 11. which enacts: "That any parson y settlement to make a lease for one or more shall have the like power to let for any ars determinable on one life or such num-mentioned in the settlement, subject how-her provisions and restrictions in such set-e object of this clause was to empower ake leases for any number of years, but y of becoming freeholders.

adant next gave in evidence, that Mr. ssee, was a Catholic, and duly qualified as le him to the benefit of the clause.

ce appearing to have come by surprise upon rl, who was present, the learned Judge Act, and having minutely inspected and he declared his opinion in favor of the va-lease. The Plaintiff's Counsel thereupon much ingenuity, that in this case the leasing eated by will, whereas the Act refers only meaning thereby only deeds 'inter vivos' arned Judge held, that settlements of pro-made by will as well as by deed, and that nd policy of the Act, as well as the lan-be taken to comprehend both wills & deeds. e further discussion, his Lordship was ect the Jury (a most respectable special verdict for the Defendant, Mr. Smyth,
