

Command of Capt. DeRoy, are under orders Loughrea; they will be replaced by ss's brigade, from Island-Bridge, Dublin.
son's company of Royal Artillery, has lin from Belfast.—They are succeeded y of Captain Drumford.

merick Militia, commanded by the Right rd Muskerry, gave Eighty Volunteers, 12th and 13th inst. Forty more will quota, a number which there is no doubt, h will supply.—The voice of honor is aleysed by the Irish soldier of every rank, f his King and country, which is inherent constitutes an unquestionable pledge of patriotism.

Down Militia, commanded by Col. Ward, ublin have given their full quota to the line.
ral George Mitchell commands the C g the absence of General Floyd.

Adjutant-General Clinton, and Quarter-al Clinton, arriv from Charleville, on h the S. and S. East Districts of this pecting the troops and barracks.

ny brigade of this City, will be inspect-next, by Major Harding;—the Arms of ps will be particularly examined into.— nce of Officers and Privates' is expected.

he following extract of a letter we have Cadiz, descriptive of the singularly me-act of a Countryman of ours, whose unrery adds another instance, and not the least e long list of proofs which our history af-irresistible prowess of the British Naval Pre-eminent among the gallant officers of pleasing to me to have to mention a Coun-rs, Lieut. Thomas O'Connell, of the Te-in the command of bomb and gun-boats, four months past, exhibited a series of good & heroism, singular even in a British fleet.

rent actions with the French, he has re-han eight wounds, notwithstanding which anxious to volunteer in any dangerous or isè.—He lately, with two boats from the ent under the batteries of the enemy, and his men, and doing some damage, he re-shower of grape shot and shells, which al of his tars, and split one of his boats—lest son of James O'Connell, Esq. of ay bring him within your notice, and my his conduct has led me thus to mention."

onnell, since the above letter was wrote, is ne situation of Master and Commander.

of the Admiralty have issued orders that who have been employed in the Impress s Kingdom, for more than three years, laced by those of junior rank:—conse-William Moore, who for near seventeen ed the arduous office of Lieutenant of the s district, with a humanity and vigilance honor, will retire on half-pay—a poor eed, for a Gentleman who has raised near ers for the Royal Navy;—Mr. Moore, is Lieut. Philip Wright.

hornborough, it is said, is to reside at g the winter, and that there will be a he navy cruising in the Bay.

the Hon. Mr. Fitz-Gibbon, fowling at on, his Gun burst, by which one of his unded, but we are happy to add, so slight-rious consequences can ensue.

he Duke of Richmond, and Suite, arrived l, the residence of Owen Wynne, Esq.
ek last, where he remained till Monday, ce proceeded to Florence-Court, the resi-Right Hon. the Earl of Enniskillen. His pected to arrive at the Vice-Regal Lodge Park, on Monday evening.

Higness the Prince of Orange and suite,
'Dowell's Hotel, Cork, on Thursday on Saturday morning, his Highness left oy, and thence to Waterford, where he for England.

course, heats
Lord Belmore's Firstrate, 4 yrs. 8st..... 1 1
Mr. Kelly's Patrick, 6 yrs. 8st..... 0 2
— Hamilton's Fitzwilliam, 4 yrs. 8st..... 0 3
— Caldwell's Bluebelly, 3 yrs. 7st. 5lb..... 3 0
— Edward's Discord, 4 yrs. 8st. 9lb..... dist.
Mr. Smyth's Landanum, 4 yrs. old, 7st. 5lb. and Mr. Daly's 2 yr. old filly, 5st. 7lb. also started, but were not placed. Mr. Edward's Discord, 4 yrs. old, 8st. 9lb. won the first heat, but the jockey who rode her was not weight.

Thursday, 13—King's plate of 100 gs. 3-years old, 2 mile—3lb. to mares.

Mr. Whaley's Charlotte..... 1
Col. Lumm's Young Ralph..... 2
Mr. Premiergast's Shillelah..... 3
Four others started, but the first three only placed.

Friday, 14—King's Plate of 100 gs. for Mares, carrying 10 stone—Four Mile heats.

Mr. Kirwan's Georgina..... 1 1
Mr. Whaley's Stella..... 2 2

EXPORTS.—Jenny for Greenock, 1282 brls. oats, by Robert Rodger.—Helen for Greenock, 1050 brls. oats, 14 tons butter, Robert Rodger.—Bee for Tralee, 7 tons rock salt.

BIRTH.—At Walmer, England, the Lady of Major Horton, of the 34th regiment, of a daughter.—At the Mansion of her father the Earl of Kenmare, on Tuesday se'nnight, the lady of Sir Thomas Gage, Bart. of a son and heir.

MARRIED.—In London, Sir Denzil Cope, Bart. of Branchhill-park, Hants, to Miss Francis, of Park-place, St. James's-st.—At Newington, Kent, the Rev. Wm.
Spooner, of Elmton, to Anna Maria, daughter of the late Right Hon. Sir Lucius O'Brien, Bart. of Dromoland, Co. Clare.—At Devon, Capt. Harrison, of the Montgomery Regt. to Miss Ellard, of Bowrinsieigh.—

At the Cathedral, Lismore, by the Rev. Thos. Parks, Lieut. Geo. Theodore De Harling, of the 24 King's German Legion, to Susan, youngest daughter of the late Rev. John Hewetson, of Suirville, Co. Kilkenny.

—In Waterford, Mr. Webber, to Miss Woodburn.— At Liverpool, Capt. Egan, to Miss Jane Small, second daughter of the late Sir Wm. Small, Bart. of Coventry Hall.—Mr. Mich. Whelan, merchant, of Dublin, to Miss Mary Sweeny, eldest daughter of Dominick Sweeny, of Strokestown, Co. Roscommon, Esq.

DIED.—Sunday last, at Mount Sion, in the 70th year of his age, after a short illness, which he bore with Christian piety, Thomas Bradshaw, Esq. deservedly regretted by his numerous friends and acquaintance.— Sunday last, at Coonagh, Mr. Simon Allen.—Monday, in Nicholas-street, Mr. James O'Mealy, book-binder.

—In Arundel-street, London, Surgeon Marcus O'Sullivan, of the R. Navy, aged 96, a native of Cork.—
—At Edinburgh, Admiral Paul Minchin.—Thursday
night, in Trinity-street, Dublin, Mr. Charles Campbell, who for the last 33 years had been Editor of The Dublin Evening Post.—Saturday last, at Bray, Mrs. Mad-
dock, wife of Robert Maddock, Esq. of Kildare-street,
Dublin, one of the most respectable Law-firm, Prendergast and Maddock.—Tuesday, in London, Sir Frs.
Baring, aged 70: he has left property to the amount of
one million sterl. which goes to three sons and one daughter. It is said he was the holder of two millions of the last loan.—At Delville, Co. Dublin, John King, Esq. late Major of the Fermanagh Militia, and formerly a Member of the Irish Parliament.—At Marsten, near Frome, the Hon. George Boyle, 2d son of the Earl of Cork.—At Drumsheugh, near Edinburgh, Francis, Earl
of Moray.—At Hastings Barracks, Capt. and Adjutant
Edw. Trelawny, of the Bedford Militia.—In England, Hector M'Lean, M. D.—At Leopardstown, the seat of Lord Castlecoote, the Hon. Charles Henry Coote, aged
28, Lieut.-Colonel of the Queen's-Co. Militia.—In Dublin, Mrs. Jane M'Mahon, wife of Mr. Pat. M'Mahon.
—At Shepton Maller, the Rev. James Hussey.—On
the Parade, Cork, Mr. Pat. De Courcey, saddler.

—At Edinburgh, Admiral Paul Minchin.—Thursday
night, in Trinity-street, Dublin, Mr. Charles Campbell,
who for the last 33 years had been Editor of The Dublin Evening Post.—Saturday last, at Bray, Mrs. Mad-
dock, wife of Robert Maddock, Esq. of Kildare-street,
Dublin, one of the most respectable Law-firm, Pren-
dergast and Maddock.—Tuesday, in London, Sir Frs.
Baring, aged 70: he has left property to the amount of
one million sterl. which goes to three sons and one daughter. It is said he was the holder of two millions
of the last loan.—At Delville, Co. Dublin, John King,
Esq. late Major of the Fermanagh Militia, and formerly
a Member of the Irish Parliament.—At Marsten, near Frome, the Hon. George Boyle, 2d son of the Earl of Cork.—At Drumsheugh, near Edinburgh, Francis, Earl
of Moray.—At Hastings Barracks, Capt. and Adjutant
Edw. Trelawny, of the Bedford Militia.—In England,
Hector M'Lean, M. D.—At Leopardstown, the seat of Lord Castlecoote, the Hon. Charles Henry Coote, aged
28, Lieut.-Colonel of the Queen's-Co. Militia.—In Dublin, Mrs. Jane M'Mahon, wife of Mr. Pat. M'Mahon.
—At Shepton Maller, the Rev. James Hussey.—On
the Parade, Cork, Mr. Pat. De Courcey, saddler.

—At Edinburgh, Admiral Paul Minchin.—Thursday
night, in Trinity-street, Dublin, Mr. Charles Campbell,
who for the last 33 years had been Editor of The Dublin Evening Post.—Saturday last, at Bray, Mrs. Mad-
dock, wife of Robert Maddock, Esq. of Kildare-street,
Dublin, one of the most respectable Law-firm, Pren-
dergast and Maddock.—Tuesday, in London, Sir Frs.
Baring, aged 70: he has left property to the amount of
one million sterl. which goes to three sons and one daughter. It is said he was the holder of two millions
of the last loan.—At Delville, Co. Dublin, John King,
Esq. late Major of the Fermanagh Militia, and formerly
a Member of the Irish Parliament.—At Marsten, near Frome, the Hon. George Boyle, 2d son of the Earl of Cork.—At Drumsheugh, near Edinburgh, Francis, Earl
of Moray.—At Hastings Barracks, Capt. and Adjutant
Edw. Trelawny, of the Bedford Militia.—In England,
Hector M'Lean, M. D.—At Leopardstown, the seat of Lord Castlecoote, the Hon. Charles Henry Coote, aged
28, Lieut.-Colonel of the Queen's-Co. Militia.—In Dublin, Mrs. Jane M'Mahon, wife of Mr. Pat. M'Mahon.
—At Shepton Maller, the Rev. James Hussey.—On
the Parade, Cork, Mr. Pat. De Courcey, saddler.

—At Edinburgh, Admiral Paul Minchin.—Thursday
night, in Trinity-street, Dublin, Mr. Charles Campbell,
who for the last 33 years had been Editor of The Dublin Evening Post.—Saturday last, at Bray, Mrs. Mad-
dock, wife of Robert Maddock, Esq. of Kildare-street,
Dublin, one of the most respectable Law-firm, Pren-
dergast and Maddock.—Tuesday, in London, Sir Frs.
Baring, aged 70: he has left property to the amount of
one million sterl. which goes to three sons and one daughter. It is said he was the holder of two millions
of the last loan.—At Delville, Co. Dublin, John King,
Esq. late Major of the Fermanagh Militia, and formerly
a Member of the Irish Parliament.—At Marsten, near Frome, the Hon. George Boyle, 2d son of the Earl of Cork.—At Drumsheugh, near Edinburgh, Francis, Earl
of Moray.—At Hastings Barracks, Capt. and Adjutant
Edw. Trelawny, of the Bedford Militia.—In England,
Hector M'Lean, M. D.—At Leopardstown, the seat of Lord Castlecoote, the Hon. Charles Henry Coote, aged
28, Lieut.-Colonel of the Queen's-Co. Militia.—In Dublin, Mrs. Jane M'Mahon, wife of Mr. Pat. M'Mahon.
—At Shepton Maller, the Rev. James Hussey.—On
the Parade, Cork, Mr. Pat. De Courcey, saddler.

—At Edinburgh, Admiral Paul Minchin.—Thursday
night, in Trinity-street, Dublin, Mr. Charles Campbell,
who for the last 33 years had been Editor of The Dublin Evening Post.—Saturday last, at Bray, Mrs. Mad-
dock, wife of Robert Maddock, Esq. of Kildare-street,
Dublin, one of the most respectable Law-firm, Pren-
dergast and Maddock.—Tuesday, in London, Sir Frs.
Baring, aged 70: he has left property to the amount of
one million sterl. which goes to three sons and one daughter. It is said he was the holder of two millions
of the last loan.—At Delville, Co. Dublin, John King,
Esq. late Major of the Fermanagh Militia, and formerly
a Member of the Irish Parliament.—At Marsten, near Frome, the Hon. George Boyle, 2d son of the Earl of Cork.—At Drumsheugh, near Edinburgh, Francis, Earl
of Moray.—At Hastings Barracks, Capt. and Adjutant
Edw. Trelawny, of the Bedford Militia.—In England,
Hector M'Lean, M. D.—At Leopardstown, the seat of Lord Castlecoote, the Hon. Charles Henry Coote, aged
28, Lieut.-Colonel of the Queen's-Co. Militia.—In Dublin, Mrs. Jane M'Mahon, wife of Mr. Pat. M'Mahon.
—At Shepton Maller, the Rev. James Hussey.—On
the Parade, Cork, Mr. Pat. De Courcey, saddler.

—At Edinburgh, Admiral Paul Minchin.—Thursday
night, in Trinity-street, Dublin, Mr. Charles Campbell,
who for the last 33 years had been Editor of The Dublin Evening Post.—Saturday last, at Bray, Mrs. Mad-
dock, wife of Robert Maddock, Esq. of Kildare-street,
Dublin, one of the most respectable Law-firm, Pren-
dergast and Maddock.—Tuesday, in London, Sir Frs.
Baring, aged 70: he has left property to the amount of
one million sterl. which goes to three sons and one daughter. It is said he was the holder of two millions
of the last loan.—At Delville, Co. Dublin, John King,
Esq. late Major of the Fermanagh Militia, and formerly
a Member of the Irish Parliament.—At Marsten, near Frome, the Hon. George Boyle, 2d son of the Earl of Cork.—At Drumsheugh, near Edinburgh, Francis, Earl
of Moray.—At Hastings Barracks, Capt. and Adjutant
Edw. Trelawny, of the Bedford Militia.—In England,
Hector M'Lean, M. D.—At Leopardstown, the seat of Lord Castlecoote, the Hon. Charles Henry Coote, aged
28, Lieut.-Colonel of the Queen's-Co. Militia.—In Dublin, Mrs. Jane M'Mahon, wife of Mr. Pat. M'Mahon.
—At Shepton Maller, the Rev. James Hussey.—On
the Parade, Cork, Mr. Pat. De Courcey, saddler.

—At Edinburgh, Admiral Paul Minchin.—Thursday
night, in Trinity-street, Dublin, Mr. Charles Campbell,
who for the last 33 years had been Editor of The Dublin Evening Post.—Saturday last, at Bray, Mrs. Mad-
dock, wife of Robert Maddock, Esq. of Kildare-street,
Dublin, one of the most respectable Law-firm, Pren-
dergast and Maddock.—Tuesday, in London, Sir Frs.
Baring, aged 70: he has left property to the amount of
one million sterl. which goes to three sons and one daughter. It is said he was the holder of two millions
of the last loan.—At Delville, Co. Dublin, John King,
Esq. late Major of the Fermanagh Militia, and formerly
a Member of the Irish Parliament.—At Marsten, near Frome, the Hon. George Boyle, 2d son of the Earl of Cork.—At Drumsheugh, near Edinburgh, Francis, Earl
of Moray.—At Hastings Barracks, Capt. and Adjutant
Edw. Trelawny, of the Bedford Militia.—In England,
Hector M'Lean, M. D.—At Leopardstown, the seat of Lord Castlecoote, the Hon. Charles Henry Coote, aged
28, Lieut.-Colonel of the Queen's-Co. Militia.—In Dublin, Mrs. Jane M'Mahon, wife of Mr. Pat. M'Mahon.
—At Shepton Maller, the Rev. James Hussey.—On
the Parade, Cork, Mr. Pat. De Courcey, saddler.

—At Edinburgh, Admiral Paul Minchin.—Thursday
night, in Trinity-street, Dublin, Mr. Charles Campbell,
who for the last 33 years had been Editor of The Dublin Evening Post.—Saturday last, at Bray, Mrs. Mad-
dock, wife of Robert Maddock, Esq. of Kildare-street,
Dublin, one of the most respectable Law-firm, Pren-
dergast and Maddock.—Tuesday, in London, Sir Frs.
Baring, aged 70: he has left property to the amount of
one million sterl. which goes to three sons and one daughter. It is said he was the holder of two millions
of the last loan.—At Delville, Co. Dublin, John King,
Esq. late Major of the Fermanagh Militia, and formerly
a Member of the Irish Parliament.—At Marsten, near Frome, the Hon. George Boyle, 2d son of the Earl of Cork.—At Drumsheugh, near Edinburgh, Francis, Earl
of Moray.—At Hastings Barracks, Capt. and Adjutant
Edw. Trelawny, of the Bedford Militia.—In England,
Hector M'Lean, M. D.—At Leopardstown, the seat of Lord Castlecoote, the Hon. Charles Henry Coote, aged
28, Lieut.-Colonel of the Queen's-Co. Militia.—In Dublin, Mrs. Jane M'Mahon, wife of Mr. Pat. M'Mahon.
—At Shepton Maller, the Rev. James Hussey.—On
the Parade, Cork, Mr. Pat. De Courcey, saddler.

—At Edinburgh, Admiral Paul Minchin.—Thursday
night, in Trinity-street, Dublin, Mr. Charles Campbell,
who for the last 33 years had been Editor of The Dublin Evening Post.—Saturday last, at Bray, Mrs. Mad-
dock, wife of Robert Maddock, Esq. of Kildare-street,
Dublin, one of the most respectable Law-firm, Pren-
dergast and Maddock.—Tuesday, in London, Sir Frs.
Baring, aged 70: he has left property to the amount of
one million sterl. which goes to three sons and one daughter. It is said he was the holder of two millions
of the last loan.—At Delville, Co. Dublin, John King,
Esq. late Major of the Fermanagh Militia, and formerly
a Member of the Irish Parliament.—At Marsten, near Frome, the Hon. George Boyle, 2d son of the Earl of Cork.—At Drumsheugh, near Edinburgh, Francis, Earl
of Moray.—At Hastings Barracks, Capt. and Adjutant
Edw. Trelawny, of the Bedford Militia.—In England,
Hector M'Lean, M. D.—At Leopardstown, the seat of Lord Castlecoote, the Hon. Charles Henry Coote, aged
28, Lieut.-Colonel of the Queen's-Co. Militia.—In Dublin, Mrs. Jane M'Mahon, wife of Mr. Pat. M'Mahon.
—At Shepton Maller, the Rev. James Hussey.—On
the Parade, Cork, Mr. Pat. De Courcey, saddler.

Dram Timber and
Of the best description and on the mo.
THEY ARE AS USUAL SUPP
A Variety of W
IN TIMBER AND BOT
Crown Glafs, &c.

3/4 Limerick, Se
TO BE LE
TOGETHER or in DIV
FROM THE 25th OF MAR
FOR SUCH TERM AS MAY BE AC
ABOUT TWO HUNDRED AND FIFT

Lands of LICKA
SITUATE three Miles from Limer Liberties of the City, and now Kennedy, Timothy Mulcahy, Thom and William Ward.—Tenants at W
* * Proposals, in Writing, wi
THOMAS ARTHUR, Esq. Glanm
DONAT O'BRIEN, Esq. Cratloe, L
Sept

OLD UPLAND
To be Sold at Green
Near PATRICK'S-W
ABOUT 20 TONS O
Excellent Old Upla
PERSONS desirous to purchas will be accommodated.
Greenmount

2/5
EXCISE-OFF
LIMERICK, SEPT
TO BE SOL
AT THE OFFICE AFOR
A large Quantity of
FOR BREACHES OF THE EX
THOMAS FITZ-G

2/5
25 Guineas Re
WHEREAS four Fat Sheep, killed, their bellies ripped taken, on the Lands of Ardclony, ne on Friday night, the 14th Inst; Acres of Oats, nearly 1/2 to cut, v and rendered of no value by some discovered.—Now, in Order, to br ment, I will pay a Reward of TE discovery and prosecuting to con Villains concerned in said Offrage.
Ardclony, Sept. 19 1810. PA

WE will Pay a further Re purpose, or for any private Inform to a discovery of the said Villains, keep secret, the name of the Inform Ge.
JOHN BOURCHIER,..... 10 | JAME

County of Limerick