

...y list, at a Court of D'Oyer Hundred, the Magistrates who had been re-elected, were to office for the ensuing Year—the Right Worshipful Francis Lloyd, Esq. Mayor, Edmund Murony and Thomas Westropp, Esqrs. Sheriffs; Edw. Parker, Esq. re-sworn as Town Clerk. Immediately after being sworn into office, the Right Worshipful Mayor was congratulated in the warmest and most enthusiastic manner by his fellow-citizens, the liveliest joy from a recollection of his past services, at the event of a Magistrate resuming the situation which he filled for the last year, with a record of firmness, activity and integrity, which has done justice to the "Poor as well as to the Rich." A banquet was presented with the Cockades and banners of the different Trades, and elevated in an appropriate Chair was carried by the spontaneous impulse of the populace through the entire City; in the evening illuminated the atmosphere, and the whole combined with that perfect unanimity which afforded the satisfaction.
