

Palatine and Rathkeale Infantry, at Rathkeale, on Thursday 20, at nine.

Upper Connello Cav. at Ballingarry, same day, at 1.

Monday, at an adjournment of the General Quarter Sessions of this City, held before the Worshipful George Smyth, Esq. Recorder, John Woods convicted for receiving a City Weight, stolen out of the Exchange, was sentenced to be pillored on this day, Saturday, and Wednesday next.

The Marquis of Downshire, and Lord Cathcart, have arrived in London.

We received Express this morning, by Mr. Haddock's Telegraph, that the Exhibition of Androides was uncommonly crowded last night, and that places in the Boxes are taken for Four Night longer.—This Theatre in miniature remains open, as the Day Exhibition is not so crowded, it seems well calculated for select parties.

BANKRUPTS—John Smith, of the City Cork, linen-draper—John Egan, of Galway, shop-keeper.—Thos. Jamieson, of Tuam, shopkeeper.

COMMITTED—On Sunday, by E. V. Fitz-Gerald, Esq. to the County Jail, Thomas M'Namara, charged on oath before said Magistrate, with having made an attack on the house of Thomas Noonan, on the night of the 12th ult. as mentioned in our Chronicle of last Wednesday. This man was apprehended by Mr. Fitz-Gerald alone, at the Liberty Gap, near Kilpeacon, on Saturday evening last, at dusk, and conducted to Patrick's-well Barracks—nearly three miles on the way to that place, several indications were shewn by the country people to attempt a rescue, but Mr. Fitz-Gerald's declaring, if the least attempt of such was made, he would shoot his prisoner, alone prevented it.—By William Thos. Locke, Esq. to the Co. Jail, yesterday, Patrick Dilane, charged with robbing William and James Johnston, of Newcastle.
