

our unfortunate Catholic peasantry, and try to such of them as enlisted in the army. day morning, a young man named L—r, a Trinity College, hung himself in his apartment seminary. The cause of his resorting to such extremity was, having been refused the amount of a debt which he had indorsed to accommodate a friend.

Stocks, Dec. 3.—Gov. Deb. 3½ per Cent. 77. Bank. 8½ per Cent. 77½.—Gov. Deb. 5 per Cent. Gov. Stock, 5 per C. 101½.

KILLEN—NOV. 23.—Mr. Eddington of Eyre—sisted by Major Armstrong of this town, with ents of the Dragoons and 90th regiment quar- re, have, we understand, scoured this country in of John Montgomery, Esq. the person, alluded article copied in a former paper from the Gal- onicle, who has absconded, being charged with er of his wife.—Mr. Eddington's strenuous ex- nce this unfortunate business took place, have remely meritorious, For several weeks toge- gentleman had not gone to rest, with the hope ending the perpetrator of that foul and heinous which humanity shudders; but we are sorry to t his efforts have as yet proved fruitless.

ay, December 1.—We alluded in our paper of se'night, in a guarded and perhaps an ambigu- ner, to a melancholy occurrence which recently re in a distant part of this County, and at the e said, that we would exert ourselves in order e acquainted with the particulars of the transac- We, however, have not been since able to learn the satisfactory manner in which we should submit them to our readers; but, as we conceive time to lay some outline of the affair before the a an intelligible shape, we shall no longer refrain blishing such of the circumstances connected as have reached us—using caution to separate t of our narrative, as we have authority for at- much credit to, from such as we publish upon only of prevalent and uncontradicted rumour. ressing and delicate subject to which we already and upon which we are now again about to the violent and sudden death (we are at pre- willing to say murder) of a most respectable man in the town of Eyrecourt. It appears n. Montgomery, one of the sisters of Giles Eyre, gentleman of considerable consequence, who upon more occasions than one, a Candidate for ammentary Representation of this county, and at this moment, a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Co. ay Militia, was found dead in her own house ht of the 13th ultimo. The Messrs. Eyres ivers) either suspecting or perfectly satisfied in t, that she had been murdered by Mr. y, her own husband, had a military guard at that gentleman, whom they caused to be is house, in which the melancholy catas- urred. The male servants of the house, r, they also caused to be apprehended t of Bradwell, for the purpose of compelling e manner in which their Mistress e death, as she had dined a very short h a her decease, apparently in as good hold ever enjoyed. A Coroners Inquest day e body on the morning of the 14th erited death) when the jury, after having and until the entire of that day, returned the e a into verdict of "Sudden Death."!!!— e a into in finding this singular and most y from the was to exculpate Mr. Montgo- imputations under which that mplished. aboured—the object was not s of the de- ion did not follow. The bro- ad Dealer and procured and brought for- clusive evidence against the Captain Young has taken the command of the Trent, Admiral Thornborough's flag ship, in Cork harbour, in the room of Captain Crosette, promoted to the rank of Post Captain.

Yesterday a County of ... and eight stone of fat

On Sunday morning last, before eight o'clock, A. Watson, Esq. paid an unexpected visit to the Public Houses in this City;—a Publican in John's-street, and another in Nicholas-street, who by candle-light were detected vending Spirituous Liquors to groupes of poor wretches, were fined by said Magistrate, £8 British each, agreeable to Law—which fines were disposed of as follow:—To the Rev. Thomas Shepherd, Treasurer to the Dispensary, £5 ss. 4d.—To the Poor of St. John's, and St. Nicholas's, £5 ss. 4d.

COMMITTED—To the Co. Jail, by the Rev. James Ellard, Maurice Fitzgibbin, of Fanstown, charged with breaking in the door, and firing a shot into the house of Michael Friday, and mortally wounding said Friday.—Last night, by Andrew Watson, Esq. to the City Jail, James O'Sullivan, a debtor confined in the Marshalsea of said jail, charged with violently assault- ing, and otherwise ill-treating, Denis Keating, for re- fusing to pay what is termed garnish.

EXPORTS—Lord Collingwood for Chepstow—1520 brls. wheat, 10 tons oatmeal, 1 bag quills, by Fisher, Mark & Fisher.—Windsor for Liverpool—651 barrels wheat, by Fosbery & Chaytor; 5 tons butter, by James Phelps; 5 bags quills and feathers, by Martin Egan; 305 salt ox-hides, 47 cow hides, 10 bundles and 35 doz. calf skins, 4 bags feathers and quills, by D. Callaghan; 211 hides & 99 bundles horse & calf skins, 2 bales and 11 bags veal & calf skins, by O'Neill & sons.

Part of Kilrush—Dec. 1, Sailed, Peggy, for Greenock, R. Duncan, 938 brls. oats, 24 Russian mats, by Studdert & Gabbett.

Part News—Dec. 3. Sailed, Betsey, Stewart, Belfast, oats.

Dec. 4.—Arrived, Queen, Cameron, master, Mare- machie, timber and spars.

BANKRUPT—Michael William Stack, of Cork, but- ter merchant.

BIRTH—On Monday last, at his house, Glentworth- street, the Lady of William Russell, Esq. of a daughter. —At Mitcham, Surrey, the Lady of Major General H. Oakes, of a son—At Palermo, the Duchess of Orleans, daughter of their Sicilian Majesties, of a Prince.

DIED—In Tralee, Mr. Wm. Lindsay, apothecary— In the Borough of Southwark, Henry Wm. Coffin, Esq. —On the 15th inst. Charles Moore, Esq. one of the Auditors of Public Accounts, and brother of the late General Sir John Moore.—On board the Chapman transport, in Portsmouth harbour, Dr. J. McCleod, one of the Physicians on the Staff of the British Army in Portugal.—At Drumcondra, Mr. Jas. Holmes.—Sunday night, in Mary-street, deservedly lamented, Mr. James Goonan.—At Cheltenham, on the 26th ult. the Right Hon. Lady E. Bryren, after a lingering and painful ill- ness.—At Lowestoff, Mary Katherine, eldest daughter of the Rev. Richard Lockwood.—Near Omagh, aged 19, Miss Stewart, only daughter of the Hon. Sir John Stewart, Bt.—Friday, after a tedious illness, aged 9 years, Miss Jane Chute, fifth daughter of Richard Chute, of Chutehall co. Kerry, Esq.—In Dublin, Francis E French, Esq. formerly of Galway, aged 70.—In Abbeygate-st. Galway, aged 69, Pat. Burke, Esq. formerly of Bally- david, in that County.—On Sunday night, at his seat, Elm-Park, near this City, Hickman Rose, Esq. Barrister at law, and Magistrate for the County of Limerick;— the integrity of whose conduct and the respectability of whose character, eminently distinguished him in all the departments thro' life; his premature demise is a source of unfeigned regret—he was a good son and an affec- ionate brother, steadfast friend, an indulgent landlord, and a kind master; his remains were yesterday evening interred at the burial ground on his estate, Ballymahon.

TO BE FROM THE ... BALLINR

Near Patrick Application to be made Ashville, Canal, Limerick. THOMAS BEHAN, on the to be Ser.

TO BE

THE Dwelling HOUSE resides in Clare-Street. CORN STORE, capable of and an extensive Yard (144 F adjoining, all in complete O for the Corn and Provision T to the Canal and Dublin Roa Application to be made to the Premises, or Mr. WILLI A few Tons of Best Kilke New Provision Utensils for S

Wanted, a good WHO must be well recor be made at Doonass

WATSON and KING'S-ARMS, M HAVE ON SALE, EIGHT Grand City At the Original

The DRAWING comm WATSON AND MAH SCRIBERS to the E will send for the remaining now complete. INSURANCES against the most liberal Terms, by MAHONY:

The Farme HAVING seen an Adv Chronicle, of 28th N FITZ-GERALD, Esq. setting from them, calling on him disturbances that existed in one and all thus publicly d such a Letter, or advised or it, as the Parish of Fedame of tranquillity, except som part of the country, having threatening him for hiring and on Molony's refusing t his door and some of his damage—and we are sure must be some ruffian that for his own private purp welfare of the Farmers. existed, we would have calle who is always ready to assis bourhood quiet, and who has night or day; or on some preference to one so far d FITZ-GERALD, Esq.