most universally regretted.—During the course of a long political life his talents were amongst the brightest ornaments, and his services of the most solid advantages to his country.—Not bigotted or attached to any party, his conduct was regulated by just and honourable feeling, and a faithful attachment to Ireland.
—He lived in the bosom of a very numerous family, whom he has left amply provided for, to emulate his virtues, and regret his loss.

By the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland, A PROCLAMATION.—Richmond, &c.

WHEREAS it appears to us by an inquest taken on the body of William Henderson, late a corporal in his Majesty's 90th regiment of foot, that the said William Henderson was barbarously and inhumanly murdered on the 13th day of November last, by a musket ball fired at him by some person in a mob consisting of several persons unknown, near the town of Tempo, in the county of Fermanagh, while doing his duty in aid of one of the officers of his Majesty's revenue.

Now we the lord lieutenant and council of Ireland being determined, as far as in us lies, to bring the perpetrators of said barbarous murder to speedy and condigna punishment, do hereby publish and declare, that if any person or persons shall, within six calendar months from the date hereof, discover any of the persons concerned in the said murder, so as that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, such person or persons shall receive as a reward the sum of £300 sterling for the first three persons concerned in the said murder

And we do hereby further publish and declare, that if any person or persons, concerned in the said murder, except the person who fired the shot whereby the said William Henderson was killed, shall within the time aforesaid discover any of the person or persons concerned in the same, so as that such person or persons be discovered and convicted thereof, such person or persons covering shall, over and above the said reward, receive his Majesty's most gracious pardon for the said offence.

And we do hereby strictly charge and command justices of the peace, magistrates, sheriffs, bailiffs, covenants, and all other his Majesty's loving subjects, in being and assisting in discovering and apprehending the persons concerned in said barbarous and inhuman murder Given at the council chamber in Dublin, the 23d Jan 1811.—Stanners, C. T. L. Meath. U. Kildare. DeBlag.
