

...the
...of Portugal, and in all the
...of rumour, which we cleave to ...at is, that we have no reason to ...our arms in any contest that may ...ing is still in less danger of giving
...one very authentic intelligence
...n Portugal, which informs us that ...received by the enemy, have not ...considerable as they were rep-
...n, from every thing that we can ...to be any longer inactive, and ...ance may be reasonably expect-aparte's commercial policy show ...ngly in the grand city of the

...We are told that an immense
...e very recently taken place in ...ated at forty, among which are ...heat character. One house is ...r six millions of francs, it has
...session nearly double that sum
...good bills, for which no dis-
...d. Two per cent. per month
...afe loans; but with this exor-
...e money could be obtained—
...are vauntingly told that "the ...or regulated the course of ex...t have not the operations of ...cted France, as to make the ...ountable? According to our
...discountable.—Correspondent rbett, of the Africaine, who ...tion with two French frigates,

...was a native of the county of ...everely wounded early in the ...the amputation of his thigh.
...state of the ship, and the ...resistance, the hero's com-...lang as she'll swim." On ...tore off the tourniquet, and ...words were, "O, Rowley!
...ther specimen of the peculi-
...and of that distinguished ...pallant children of Erin, of
...at this moment encircling
...ient glory.

nobleman, who conducted ...propriety at the late meet-
...in Dublin, is son to the ...t. of French Castle, in the ...s ancestors have resided in ...centuries. His Lordship's
...descended from a branch
...and who was created a
...and died in 1805, when the ...now Lord French, who
...of his family—Death and Recorder of Dublin,

...neil in their gowns, went
...l to his Grace the Lord
...at the late assembly, to
...tighness the Prince Re-
...nimented with considera-
...ences of erecting a ro-
...sea Hospital, for the ac-...alids as are of that per-...eprice is estimated at use of Cahibane, co.

...consumed to ashes.
...gh's bed-chamber was ...opening the door it was
...flames having reached
...e room; but, we are
...ions of the family and
...was prevented, and no
...t of the bed and other
...e accident supposed
...lessness of one of the ...siderable time before dead lying upon their oars, the little boy only survived the pillless storm.

A subscription has been opened in Belfast, and in Newry and Lisburn, for defraying the expences incurred by Mr. Finnelly in the late prosecution for a libel.

The celebrated Mr. Finnelly arrived here on Sunday afternoon, in a chaise and four, accompanied by Shaw and another officer; and, after dining at the White Hart, was conducted to the castle, pursuant to his sentence. He is confined in one of the felon cells, (No. 6.)
—Lincoln Paper.

A letter from Mr. Finnelly to a friend in London, says, "my situation here is deplorable. It is in fact, solitary confinement."

BIRTH.

At her lodgings on the Grand Parade, Cork, the lady of the late Richard Frankland, Esq. of Ashgrove, county Cork, of a son and heir.—A few days since we had to announce the death of her much respected husband.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday evening, at Greenmount, co. Clare, Cornelius O'Keefe, Esq. formerly of Six-Mile-Bridge, in that county—and father of the late Major O'Keefe, who fell at the attack of the Isle of France.

On Wednesday last, at Creagh-lane Convent, the Rev. Walter A. Aylmer, of the order of Saint Augustus, a Gentleman highly respected—he closed a life spent in the service of his Redeemer, after a lingering illness, with the unfeigned regret of all who knew him.

This morning on Arthur's-Quay, Master John Kennedy, aged 15 years, eldest son to John Kennedy, Esq. of this city Banker—his death is sincerely lamented by his family and acquaintance, a youth whose amiable disposition and engaging manners endeared him to all who knew him.

Tuesday, in Waterford, Mr. Torrence Shaw, Architect.

At Exmouth, after a long illness, Robert Shawe, Esq. late of the 74th foot and a Brigadier General.

At Bath, the Hon. and Rev. Frederick Hamilton.

At Mauldsie Castle, England, on the 14th ult. the Rt. Hon. Thomas Earl of Hyndford.

On Monday the 2d instant, at Grenville Place, Cork, after a tedious illness, Mrs. Saunders, relict of the late Rev. Wm. Herbert Saunders.

Part MR. VINCENT,
RESPECTFULLY informs the Public, that the Lecture and Musical Selection, announced for this Evening is unavoidably postponed until MONDAY evening.
Subscription for Three Nights..... 11s. 4½d.
Single Night..... 5s. 5d.
Limerick, March 8.

FLAXSEED, &c.
John Kelly, and Co.
ARE now landing the Cargo of the Ship Mars, from Philadelphia, consisting of 500 Hhds. } FLAXSEED, 200 Half Do. }
And 40,000 Hhd. and Barrel STAVES,
Which they will dispose of on reasonable Terms.
They have also on Sale a large Assortment of Dram DEALS, which will be Sold Cheap.
Limerick, March 8.

£100 WANTED
ON the Assignment of a Judgment, affecting a large and well-circumstanced Property, in the Vicinity of Limerick, and if immediately procured a very Liberal Doceur will be given.
Any person having such to lend will be referred to the Advertiser, on applying at this Office.
March 8.

The Rev. W. M. M-ENIERY,
And the Parishioners of Loughill, Co. Limerick, THUS publicly return their most sincere and grateful acknowledgments to STEPH. EDWARD RICE, of Mount Trenchard, Esq. for his liberal Subscription of FIFTY GUINEAS, for the laudable purpose of erecting a Chapel, in said Parish.

LECTURES ON ELOCUTION,
Exemplified by ENGLISH READINGS, And Interspersed with MUSICAL SELECTIONS,
From the ablest Composers.
The Vocal Parts by Mr. SPRAY, Mr. SMITH,
Miss SPRAY, and Mrs. VINCENT.
March 5.

RAW SUGARS.
JAMES HILL, HAS A FEW TIERCES OF GOOD RAW SUGARS
FOR SALE.
Limerick, 5th of (3d Mo.) March 1811.

New Shelland Ling, FOR SALE AT
M. GAVIN'S, BROAD-STREET,
Limerick, March 5.

Rectifying Distillery, Michael-Street, near Bank-Place.
L. & M. RYAN,
Have now ready for delivery at the above Concerns, Rum, Barndy, Geneva, AND RECTIFIED WHISKEY,
Equal in Strength and Flavor to any Foreign Spirits,
Which they intend to dispose of on pleasing Terms.
Limerick, March 5.

NURSERY TREES.
SIXTY Thousand BEECH, ASH and SYCAMORE, from Four to Ten Feet High, to be Sold at Prospect Row Nurseries, out of said Nurseries being out of Lease, its present Stock comprising the above kinds will be sold in Lots—Gentlemen planting will find it their advantage to Purchase, as they must be disposed of without reserve before the 25th inst. and will be sold for half their usual Prices for Ready Money.
Limerick, March 5.

CHARITY SERMON.
ON SUNDAY, the 17th of March, Instant, a CHA-RITY SERMON will be Preached at Two o'Clock, at St. Michael's Chapel, by the Rev. PAT. HOGAN, in aid of the Charity School, of St. John's Parish, where in near One Hundred Destitute Orphans are constantly Clothed, Educated, and Instructed in the Principles of the CHRISTIAN RELIGION, and when Qualified, Apprenticed, and thereby rendered Useful Members of Society.
The Directors humbly assure the Public, that their Funds are entirely exhausted, that they are actually in Debt for a great part of the Clothing of the present Year, and therefore are obliged after a lapse of Four Years and a Half, to make this solemn appeal to their feelings, to support an Establishment, founded in this City Twenty Years and upwards, and wherein so many hundred poor Boys have been ever since Educated, and thereby rescued from all the consequent horrors of Idleness, Vice, and Ignorance.
After the Sermon, the Children will sing an appropriate HYMN, accompanied by Musical Gentlemen who have kindly promised to perform some solemn pieces on the occasion.
Benefactors from such as cannot attend, will be thankfully received by the Managers.