T is with the most lively sense of feeling, that the Directors of the Charity School of St. John's Parish, for the Education and Clothing of poor and deserted children, now offer Public Thanks to the Rev. Patrick Hogan, for his valuable Sermon on Sunday last, wherein the Preacher's zeal and abilities were so emphatically pleaded in behalf of that most excellent institution .- And they are also happy on this occasion to pay their debt of gratitude to his numerous and highly respectable auditory, amoust whom the attention and earnestness of Stephen Edw. Rice. Esq. the Recorder; Sir James Crofton, Bt. Col. Vandeleur, Thomas and Robert Maunsell, Win. Roche; and T. F. Wilkinson, Esqri. as Collectors for the poor children, were found so highly useful to this Charity, and productive of a larger sum than ever was had before on any similar occasion. The gratuitous attendance and admired vocal abilities of Mr. and Miss pray, and of Mrs. Vincent, equally demand the tribut of their gratitude.—To the musical gentlemen, with M. Cornely at their head, the Directors are particular, indebted for their laudable attendance and perform se in the Choir.
