

Artillery, to fol- continues gal seven Lisbon.— any other can make army than I Mac Do- t, a corps frequently d the Con- establish- stowed on and paid the er. Cape Re- nd it chief Cadiz, and so to be sent battle. We on the Spa- tion of their succeeded in r consenting de of Spanish obstructions have a depot get a second ng from the

His zeal and abilities made him eminently useful to those who were more particularly the objects of his mission: the suavity of his manners endeared him to all. On leaving the island in 1807, he received as a token of regard from a general association of the inhabitants, a beautiful silver vase value £150, with the following neat inscription.

PRESENTED TO THE
RT. REV. DR. O'DONEL,
By the Inhabitants of
ST. JOHN'S NEWFOUNDLAND,
AS A TESTIMONY OF THEIR ESTEEM FOR HIS
Pious, Patriotic, & Meritorious Conduct
During a Residence among them
OF TWENTY-THREE YEARS.

Never was a testimony better merited, or better bestowed. He received from Government likewise, a handsome life pension, which he always looked upon with pride, as a mark of his Majesty's approbation.— His last years, which he spent in this city, were such as might be expected at the close of such a life. He seemed to feel himself at the last stages of a journey, the performance of which had been his chief care. During a gradual decay he retained possession of his faculties to the last; and a short time before his death traced the following inscription for his tomb:

"Here lieth the Mortal Remains of the Rt. Rev. Dr. JAMES O'DONEL, Bishop of Thyatira, the first Qualified Missionary; who ever went to Newfoundland, where he spent 23 years, as Prefect and Vicar Apostolic of said Mission. He departed this life—, in the 74th year of his age. May he rest in Peace.—Amen.

On Monday last his Grace the Lord Lieutenant and the Duchess of Richmond entertained at dinner The Lord Bishop of Kildare, and Mrs. Lindsay; lord and lady Monk; the attorney-general, and lady Mary Saurin; Mr. and lady Ann Gregory; Mr. and Mrs. Price Blackwood; Mr. and Mrs. Jocelyn; Hon. Mr. Agar, Hon. Mr. Hewitt; the Dean of Lismore; hon. and Rev. Mr. Pomeroy; serjt. M'Mahon, Sir R. Musgrave, and Mr. Hardman.

Her Grace the Duchess of Richmond had an evening party; among the company were

The earl and countess of Harrington; earl and countess of Glandore; countess of Clanwilliam; countess of Kilkenny; dowager countess of Clancarty; lady Charlotte Mahon; lord and lady Lismore; lord and lady Tara; ladies Cuffe; lady Manners; lady Rossmore; lady Stanhope; lady Maria Meade, lady Louisa French, Mr. and lady Elizabeth M'Clintock, lady Jocelyns, lady Ann Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Beresford, Mr. and Mrs. Parkhurst, Major and Mrs. Reddy, Mr. and Mrs. St. George, Miss Wilson, Miss Cox, Miss Gregory, Miss Lindsay, Miss Hales, Miss Packingham, Miss Woodcock, Miss Montgomery, the Archbishop of Tuam, Lord Desart, Lord Jocelyn, Lord Delvin, Lord Frankfort, Bishop of Ferns, Bishop of Clonfert and Mrs. Butson, Archdeacon of Dublin, Right Hon. Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald, Sir Edward and Lady Elizabeth Littlehales, Hon. Captain Stanhope, Sir Charles Saxton, Sir Charles Ormsby, Mr. Saurin, Mr. Pakenham, Colonel Gordon, Colonel Jackson, Mr. Tisdal, &c. &c.

The following are the names of the Noble Peers who lately voted for an account of the number of informations for libel that had been filed ex officio.

The Duke of Bedford	Earl of Cowper
Marquis of Landsdowne	Charlemont
Douglas	Roslyne
Earl of Albemarle	Lord Say and Sele
Stanhope	Holland
Grosvenor	Erskine.

The ludicrous scene of the exciseman in the coalpit which happened lately near Edinburgh, mentioned in a former paper, was somewhat similar in its effects with the following circumstance:—

BIRTH.
On Sunday last, at his Lordship's residence, Berkeley square, the Marchioness of ... of a son and heir.

MARRIAGE.
On Monday the 1st of April, in Dublin, the Reverend Henry Bateman, of Mount Henry, county of Limerick, to Matilda, eldest daughter of the late Capt. Cooke, of Leeson-street.

DEATHS.
On Thursday night, at an advanced age, in Ennis, Mr. Nathaniel Judd, of that town, cordwainer.
Tuesday, at Gragara, county Kilkenny, Rd. Blanchfield, Esq. son of P. Blanchfield, Esq. of said place.
On Thursday morning last, in Kilkenny, Mr. George Malone.

At Calcutta, on Saturday the 3d ult. in the 20th year of his age, Capt. James Mockler, of the 7th regt. of Native Bengal Cavalry, son to John Mockler, Esq. of Trim, co. of Meath, Ireland.

On the 23d inst. in Northampton-street, Bath, aged 70 years, Mrs. Rochfort, wife of John Rochfort, of Clongrennan, in the county of Carlow, Esq.

Public Thanks.

THE Directors of the Charity School of St. John's Parish, acknowledge with most sincere thanks, the receipt of Five Guineas from Lord Glenworth, per hands of Rev. Pat. Hogan, and while they thus publicly give expressions to sentiments of the most lively gratitude for so generous and unequalled a donation, they beg leave to congratulate their city and county on the residence of a nobleman, whose humane disposition and avowed determination is to give every support in his power, not only to every charitable institution as here munificently instanced; but also to the natural rights and just claims of his Catholic countrymen, so liberally evinced on a recent and distinguished occasion.
Limerick, April 5.

Wigan and Newport Coals.

ARRIVED TO
DOYLE AND CO.
PER THE ALBERT, DENNIS MULLIN, MASTER,
SIXTY TONS Best Wigan Coals, a few Tons, of which they will sell out of the Vessel.—Also
Per the Lord Collingwood,
150 Tons best Newport Coals,
Fat for House-Keepers' or Smiths' Use.
Limerick, 5th April, 1811.

Best House Coals.
FOSBERY & CHAYTER,

ARE now discharging a Cargo of the best House COALS, which they will dispose of on Moderate Terms, out of the Vessel.
Limerick, April 5.

K. B. D.
JOHN BARRY,

RECOMMENDS a perusal of the undermentioned Scheme of the New Lottery, which will be found to contain Sixty Capital Prizes, all to be drawn on the ...

NOTICE.

I. late venerable from Dublin in sited in the fall- ection of the ers of this gen- sion a deep im- a considera- testify for him uch lamented hu's, of which e.—They were some thousands thized in evinc- so much worth- ars give suffici- ed, and society eath of a gentle- humanity; hav- ng and relieving ed at the early regiment which y in Portugal, is te, being absent ouncing the of- ce to the British deserter from his in Portugal. He e before Massena pretence of tyran- rior officer, and rom the Roman Cork, are now at ignatures. Sir Wm. Smith ar- edately proceeded