ing this national object.

Mr. Oddy then in a general statement exhibited the following exportation from the produce of the soil of Ireland:

1808.....	£2,029,000,
1809.....	2,372,000,
1810.....	2,392,000,

Exportation of Live Stock in said Period,

1808.....	£ 87,000,
1809.....	110,000,
1810.....	271,000,

Mr. Oddy concluded a speech replete with argument discernment, and a clear, comprehensive, and masterly view of the various subjects, which was not incontrovertible, but left evident proofs of conviction on the minds of the auditory, and of course produced that universal sentiment of concurrence and approbation gratifying to him, and highly creditable to the feelings of the respectable inhabitants of Limerick and its vicinity.

The meeting having returned thanks to Mr. Oddy, appointed 25 noblemen and gentlemen, to co-operate with the committee of the chamber of commerce for the time being, in promoting the object of the meeting.

By the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

RICHMOND, &c.

WHEREAS it appears unto us, by information upon oath, that between the hours of twelve and one o'clock on the night of Sunday the 11th day of August last, James Anderson, a private soldier in his Majesty's Sligo Regiment of Militia, was fired at while on his post as sentinel at the Barrack gate, at Abbyfail, in the county of Limerick, by some evil minded person at present unknown, by which wicked and malicious act the said James Anderson received a wound in the hand from a pistol shot.

Now we the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland, being determined, as far as in us lies, to bring to speedy and condign punishment the person who fired at and wounded the said J. Anderson, do hereby publish and declare, that if any person or persons shall, within six calendar months from the date hereof discover the person who fired the said shot, so as that he be apprehended and convicted thereof, such person or persons so discovering shall receive as a reward the sum of £900.—And we do hereby publish and declare, that if any person or persons (other than the person who actually fired the said shot) who may have been privy to or concerned in the said offence, shall, within the time aforesaid, discover his or their
