A. J. WATSON'S

Licensed Lottery Office, Patrick-St. Limerick.

To the Independent Freeholders of the County Clare.

GENTLEMEN,

IT was not my intention to have intruded myself upon your notice previous to an Election, had I not been urged by my Friends so to do, in consequence of a Report having been circulated that I did not purpose offering myself as a Candidate to Represent you in Parliament on the next Election. I therefore beg to assure you it is my fixed determination, whenever an opportunity offers, to again stand forward as a Candidate for your approbation. Had it been my intention to have relinquished the hope of so flattering a situation, I should have felt it my Duty, to have Publicly made you acquainted with it;—a silence on my part would have but ill repaid you for the encouraging & flattering mark you gave to my Family on the late Election, of a wish to re-estate it in your Favor.—I have the Honor to remain, Gentlemen, Your Obligated and Obedient Servant,

November 7/1811.

JAMES O'BRYEN.

CHARLES O'HARA,

TAKES leave to say, he is fitting up the House, No. 5, RUTLAND-ST. (next to Messrs. Bruce's Back), where he hopes, in a few Weeks, to have for the inspection of his Friends and the Public, a well chosen Assortment of Goods, in the HARDWARE, IRON-MONGERY, and TRIMMING Line.
