

TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1812.

ed since our last, London papers to ive. The Parliamentary intelligence nent feature in their contents, to d the greatest attention. That part r affairs with America is peculiarly House of Commons entered into a uesday last, respecting the Orders in esses were examined, and the minutes d to be printed, after which the com-
-the proceedings in our next.

truce arrived on Wednesday last at with an officer and dispatches which transmitted to Government. It is are in reply to the dispatches forto Calais on the 24th ult. On their stocks rose one per cent.

RN WAR.—The accounts are con-ing the departure of Bonaparte for papers to the 26th ult. have been quite silent on the subject, they state cit of ministers on the 22d. Private however, state positively, that the Emperor had taken place, and add, profound secret. It is not probable of the Emperor would be publicly ournals, for we know that it has been is circumstance on former occasions the passage of troops towards the ies. A route for forwarding estance and the frontiers of Russia has nd post horses are left constantly in appearances are of course warlike. z in 20 days, transmitted by the way us, that the Austrian army under les, consists of 110,000 men, and are rench at the first notice.

BADAJOS.—Among the list of obtained the marked approbation of ander, for their conduct at the cap-the siege of Badajoz, we notice the General Vandeleur, brother to the leur, who was killed in India, and Boyle Vandeleur, Esq. of the county Colonel Barnard, nephew to the late ese; Lieut. Colonel Knight, nephew Knight, of this city; Lieut. Colonel r to the present Representative in county Clare; and Lieut. Bouchier, ery, son to Major General Bouchier.
We rarely have to record an instance ch junior rank as the latter gentle-ng himself particularly in so general ere, though many may prove their e particularized.

Badajos could not have been effect-al sacrifice of public, as well as prie following beautiful and pathetic e of our own Poets, offers on his oc-ls of the afflicted, the best consolf those relations whose lives have e service of their country:—

he BRAVE, who sink to rest, country's wishes blest!
g, with dewy fingers cold, deck their hollow'd mould, tall droop a sweeter sode, s feet have ever trode!
nds their knell is rung, n seen their dirge is sung, or comes, a pilgrim gray, turf that wraps their clay, m shall awhile repair, weeping hermit there!

he last bulletin who is of the 25th jestly continues nearly in the same monthly report.

GENTLEMEN,

AT a time so distant from the probable period of an Election, a general Canvass has commenced for the honor of Representing you in the next Parliament.
The Call of the House obliges me to absent myself from the County; this Obligation, which prevents me paying my personal Respects to you now, will, I hope also plead my excuse.

I shall seize the earliest Opportunity to wait upon you individually, and solicit a continuance of that honourable Trust, which it is the Pride of my Life to discharge faithfully.

I have the Honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your most grateful and devoted Humble Servant,
WINDHAM QUIN.

Adare, April 2, 1812.

TO THE FREE ELECTORS
OF THE
COUNTY OF LIMERICK.

IVERY much regret, that my Professional Duty obliged me to leave you at a Moment when I was anxious to pay my personal Respects to you all.— I shall hasten to avail myself of the first occasion to do so, and in the mean time, commit my interests to your Kindness and Indulgence

I thank you most sincerely for the favorable Reception I have hitherto experienced, which, notwithstanding the late period at which I commenced a Canvass, affords me the most flattering Prospect of Success.

I have the Honor to be, Gentlemen,
With very great Respect,
Your most faithful and obedient Servant,
STANDISH O'GRADY.
Dundalk, April 9, 1812.
