

of the Duke of Buckingham, at in the reign of Charles II. with ared; for although Felton had euge, he thought he was doing in, by destroying Buckingham. e proclaimed as a tyrant, and ntry. There have been several inate English Ministers, as that Oxford, by one Guiscard; and Ormond, by one Blood—but the gham by Felton, is the only one s the melancholy case we have id even that, as we have shewn, at, for Bellingham's crime was, ork of private revenge, or insuout of the distresses of the coun-and rebellious associations in the whatever may have been our opis politics or policy, it is but jusan of whom much good may and id, and whose errors shall be with to the grave. His manners were was the support of numbers who aid, an excellent husband, and the twelve children. Mrs. Perceval er 20th child, having lost the ree spent the whole night of Monosibility—a violent burst of tears the morning—the whole family nexpressible grief, and we are human being in this part of the pathises with them, for politics at an must forget. We deeply regret, cannot say so much of the Sister London papers state, that when g to prison, the mob cheered, and him, hissing the soldiery, and crytime, "Burdett for ever."—The authority of a letter from Notting-ner had the news of Mr. Perceval's ed in that town, than the most entions of joy of the most horrible need—the bells were rung, bonfires and a tumultuous crowd of people f the guard-room, with drums beathouting, huzzaing, and expressing their gestures." Mr. Perceval was his age, born 1st November, 1762. ate, and half brother of the present The Irish title of Lord Arden de-Perceval's full brother, in right of vas of the Northampton family; and nily Mr. Perceval took the name of connection with it he established his ough of Northampton, which he has a Parliament. He was married in ne, second daughter of Sir Thomas e preparations for his interment, in are said to be already in a state of following is a

by of the House of Commons, Perceval was murdered.

the body of the House.
 by.
 olding doors opening into Lobby.
 e from Lobby into the House.
 y's Room.
 lars.
 ere the Assassin stood.
 ere Mr. Perceval stood.
 ere he fell.

THE PENINSULA.—In this sheet will be found, official accounts from Lord Wellington, of the 16th, 21th, and 29th ult. Some of the London prints say, that the siege of Cadiz has been raised. Accounts however, have been received from that place of the 4th instant, which contradict the assertion.

Arrived on Saturday last, at his seat, Newtown Pery, from Dublin, Lord Viscount Glentworth and Lady.
 At a meeting of the Dublin Catholic Board on Tuesday last, Mr. O'Connell gave notice, that he would at the next Meeting (which was to have been on Saturday last), submit a motion to the Board for calling an Aggregate Meeting.

Yesterday, the Yeomanry Brigade of this city, under the command of Captain Vincent, underwent the usual monthly inspection, at the residence of George's church.
 The Cardigan Regiment of Militia, march to-morrow morning from this city to Loughrea—and will be replaced by the East Kent.

We are unavoidably obliged to postpone the insertion of several local articles.
BIRTH—Lately, in London, the Lady Theodosia Rice (daughter of the Right Hon. the Earl of Limerick), of a daughter.

To Brewers, Malt Distillers, Vinegar Makers, and others.
TO BE SOLD,

TWELVE OAK VATS, which are in good condition, and now in use, belonging to a Brewery that has joined a larger Concern—viz: One of 440 Barrels, two of 310 Barrels, one of 260 Barrels, six of from 80 to 90 Barrels, and two of 44 Barrels; one Square Oak Liquor Back, of 160 Barrels; and Dry Coolers, Working Tuns, Stillings; a STEAM ENGINE, with its apparatus of three-horse power, and a MASHING MACHINE, by Cooper, for a 25 quarter Mashtan; an OAK VAT, which has been about two years in use, containing 1050 Barrels; and an OAK VAT, the largest and upwards, containing about 1100 Barrels.
 Letters addressed to Mr. THOMAS RUFFIN, Back-maker, No. 1, Goswell-street Road, near Aldersgate-street, London, will be immediately attended to.
 May 19.

Notice to Distillers, & other Dealers in Spirits.

THE Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, hereby give Notice, that by an Act 52d Geo. III. chap. 46, passed on the 5th day of May inst. an additional duty of 2s. 6d. British, per gallon, is imposed upon all Spirits made in Great Britain or Ireland from corn or grain malted or unmalted, in stock on the 8th of April, 1812; and that in order to secure said duties, every Distiller, Importer, Dealer, Seller, Retailer, Rectifier, and Compounder of Spirits, who on the said 8th day of April, shall have had in his, her, or their possession in any warehouse, (other than his Majesty's warehouses, or under his Majesty's locks,) store-room shop, cellar, vault, or other place, or in the custody or possession of any other person, for his, or her, or their use, any such Spirits, liable to additional duty, are required within thirty one days after the said 5th day of May instant, to deliver at the Office of the Collector of Excise of the District in which said Spirits shall have been on said 8th day of April, a just, true and particular account in writing, of the quantity of all Spirits which on said day shall have been in the custody or possession of such Distiller, Importer, Dealer, Seller, Retailer, Rectifier Compounder or other person, in every such warehouse [other than as aforesaid] storehouse, room, shop, cellar, vault or other place, or in the custody or possession of any person for his, or her, or their use, describing the places in which the same shall be, and the situation thereof, and every person delivering such account shall make oath, or, if a Quaker, a solemn affirmation, before a Chief Commissioner, or Sub-Commissioner, of Excise, as to the truth of such account, and every person, as aforesaid neglecting to deliver, or causing to be delivered the accounts aforesaid, within the respective times aforesaid, and to make such oath or affirmation or delivering, or causing to be delivered a false, untrue account, forfeits One Hundred Pounds; and all Spirits of which such account shall not be delivered, and the vessels containing the same, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Customs or Excise. And that every person chargeable with the said additional duty, who shall remove any Spirits on which the same shall have been charged, without having paid the said duty, or in whose stock account there-shall appear any decrease of such Spirits, without having obtain a permit or permits, for the removal of the quantity deficient, forfeit the sum of £20 together with a sum equal to double the amount of the said additional duty chargeable on the Spirits.
 The Commissioners further give notice that the said

GRAZIERS,
TAKEN ON
The Lands of NEWCASTLE, ON MODERATE TERMS. May 19.

ORANGES.

100 Boxes of China Oranges,
Of a very superior Quality, FOR SALE AT
EDMOND RYAN AND SON'S.
 Limerick, May 19.

New Wholesale and Retail China, Cut Glass, and Earthen Ware Establishment.

JAS. CAULFIELD begs leave to inform his friends and the public, he has just returned from England, and has arrived to him at his new and extensive Warehouse, Francis-St. opposite the Commercial Buildings, 270 Crates of every article in the above line, direct from the Potteries, and chosen under his own immediate inspection; they are, as to quality and elegance, superior to any hitherto imported into this City—as he intends to continue a quick & successive supply of these articles, he is resolved to sell as cheap as any other house in Ireland.
 His former Establishment in Bridge-street, is, as usual, well supplied with a variety of the same articles, under the direction of his Son, who will let the upper part of the House—it is in thorough repair, and fit for the reception of a large Family.—Wholesale Dealers can purchase Goods at either of the above Concerns, on as cheap terms as they can import them. May 19.

House in Patrick-Street.

TO be Sold by Auction, on Tuesday the 19th Inst. on the Premises, between the hours of One and Two o'Clock the Interest in the HOUSE in Patrick-Street, lately occupied by James Bourke, Shoemaker.
 The House is in thorough repair, fit for the reception of any Family; and the situation for Business as good as any in the city, and of which there is a Lease for ever. If more agreeable, the above will be disposed by private Sale, on application to Mr. R. BAKER, who has also for Sale, a few Tons of nice Upland HAY.
 The above Sale is adjourned to Thursday next.
 May 19.

New Theatre—George's-Street.

At a General Meeting of the Subscribers, held this Day,
ROBERT MAUNSELL, Esq. in the Chair,
IT was agreed upon—That all Deposits and Arrears, shall be paid into the Bank of the Treasurers, Messrs.
 MAUNSELL and KENNEDY, for which regular Receipts will be given; and that all those Subscribers who are in Arrear, are hereby requested to make good their Deposits, for the purpose of completing the Building, now in a state of great Forwardness.
 Signed by Order,
RICHARD MEADE,
 Limerick, May 15. Secretary to the Committee.

Castle Connell Boarding-House.

JOHN DONDON,
RETURNS his most sincere Thanks to the Nobility and Gentry of the Country, for the liberal Encouragement he has experienced since his commencement in Business, begs leave to inform them, that his House in Castle Castle is fitted out for the reception of Ladies and Gentlemen.
 Breakfasts and Dinners at the shortest Notice, in the adjacent Lodge.
 * * * New Stabling, and the best Hay and Oats.
 May 19.

NEW INN.

THE NEW INN at Newcastle having been lately taken by SIMON NEWMAN, from England, and fitted up in a superior style of neatness, he takes the liberty in informing the Nobility and Gentry, it is now ready for their reception; and as he is determined not to spare either expence or exertion, to afford them every accommodation, he flatters himself with a continuance and increase of that favor and approbation with which they have already honored him—There will be a Coffee Room in the house, supplied with English & Irish Newspapers.
 The Stabling has been divided into separate and roomy stalls, and finished in the most convenient and superior manner.
 Newcastle, May 19.