It was expected that the present session of Parliament would terminate in June, but from recent occurrences it is likely to sit until the end of July.

The correspondence resulting from the overtures made to Lord Wellesley and Mr. Canning, to unite with Lords Liverpool and Castlereagh, must excite very peculiar interest. Of these we gave a succinct in our last, but we this day lay it immutilated before our readers, being convinced that it is of the greatest importance that the public should be accurately informed of the motives and views which actuate those who seek the direction of our national affairs; nor can we conceive that any species of documents can ever be brought before them, so well calculated to give them correct ideas of the characters of public men, or of the system which, in their estimation, should be adopted for the rule of the country.

THE PENINSULA.—A mail from Lisbon has arrived at Falmouth, but it communicates no intelligence of importance. Lord Wellington's head quarters are stated to have been at Formosa on the 11th inst.

NORTHERN WAR.—It is reported in the London papers of Saturday, that a great battle had taken place between the French and Russians, and that the former had three particular regiments cut to pieces. The intelligence is said to have been communicated to one of our cruisers fallen in with off the Flemish coast, and neither the scene of action, nor the result was distinctly stated. If this report has any foundation, we believe it merely relates to an affair which is mentioned in the London papers of Sunday last, on the authority of the Frankfort Gazette, which state, that a body of Russian cossacks, which had crossed the Wysa for the sake of plunder, had been met by a body of the allied troops or in other words, troops of the Confederation of the Rhine, and repulsed, after a loss of 96 men killed and wounded, and 22 prisoners.

NORTH AMERICA.—Our last advices from this quarter are of the 29th ult. The Mercantile Advertiser mentions the receipt of letters from Mr. Barlow, in which he says, "there is no hope of a commercial or any other advantageous arrangement with France."—The enactment of the Embargo law has been followed up by some regulations to prohibit the exportation of specie, goods, wares, and merchandize, for a certain time. Our readers will recollect, that that the last public declaration of the British government, respecting America, stated, that whenever the Milan and Berlin Decrees should, by some authentic document, appear to be actually repealed, then the Orders in Council should also cease. It is now affirmed, that on Tuesday last, the American Mission in London communicated to Ministers a dispatch which they had received from the American Minister at Paris, containing the formal renunciation, by the French Government, of these Decrees, as far as regards America. This document, of which the following is a copy, is stated to have been officially notified by the French Government to the American Minister, in consequence of the declaration of our Government above alluded to:

FRENCH DECREE,
Palace of St. Cloud, April 28, 1811.

"Napoleon, Emperor of the French, King of Italy, Protector of the Confederation of the Rhine, Mediator of the Swiss Confederation,

"On the report of our minister for foreign affairs, "In consequence of the act of 2d of March, 1811, by which the congress of the United States have enacted exemptions from the provisions of the non-intercourse act, which prohibited the entrance into the American ports to the ships and goods of Great Britain, of its colonies and dependencies;

"Considering that the said law is an act of resistance to the arbitrary pretensions consecrated by the British orders in council, and a former refusal to adhere to a system derogatory to the independence of neutral powers, and of their flag;

"We have decreed and decree as follows:—

"The decrees of Berlin and Milan are definitively, and from the date of the 1st of November last, considered as never having taken place (non avenues) with regard to American vessels. NAPOLEON.

The subject was noticed on Friday evening in the House of Commons by Mr. Brougham, to whose request for an explanation upon it, Lord Castlereagh answered, that this partial repeal with respect to America, was only declared for sinister and hostile purposes was altogether a trick disgraceful to any civilized government, and could make no alteration whatever on the question of the orders in council.

bers, and took from them about four pounds—one individual had £1400. concealed in his boots. Through the active exertions of Mr. Latham of Ballisheehan, and his son; one of the villains has been taken after an obstinate resistance—he fired at Mr. L.'s servant and the ball passed through his hat—the man returned the fire, and wounded him in the groin.

We sorry to learn that the report of the dreadful earthquake in South America stand upon a foundation which no longer suffers us to entertain any strong hopes of its fallacy. It destroyed 15,600 inhabitants and 17 churches in Caraccas, and 14000 persons at La Guira, leaving the town a heap of ruins.

COVE, MAY 25.—The Resolute gun-brig arrived here on Friday from Gibraltar, she has brought dispatches from Commodore Penrose, commanding at Gibraltar, stating that he had ordered Hyacinth, Capt.
