

these principles they had acted dwick had said on one occasion, gious establishment to be broken endanger the established church, r civil liberties.—(hear, hear,) ho brought forward the motion of the Priest did not extend be-
 ; but was it not well known that considered as temporal matters irtual matters? And had not o had frequently been quoted on not impartially, said, that "so acknowledged a foreign Soverecomplain if they were not admit-the state." He should not now longer than by proposing an a-should persist in, even if he should le Marquis had agreed with him, the commencement of the pre-was not the time to entertain the Marquis's opinion had altered—ained the same; and therefore he ous question.
 said that in his opinion the cathove their claims granted, & there-or the motion of the Noble Mar-would support the motion but he necessary that securities should tholics.
 ex and Kent strongly supported expressed himself favourable to CANTERBURY thought, that all union that the claims might, under e acceded to, would best express g in favour of the present motion.
 t more was intended than was prothe case, he would still wish to st those intentions; but at present e motion.
 UGH opposed the motion.
 declared his firm adherence to the his noble Friends rested the claims ics on former occasions. After ions which had been raised against se claims, his own opinion remain-ble, that it was not necessary, for the established religion, that the e, or be called upon to give, the ble and learned lord on the Wool-had formerly thought the conces-
 ; unsafe; but the dangers of one ; dangers of another, and he quite d be political next session to con-of the catholics rendered it safe h political power; and when the consideration, he should be for concessions, not successively, but nce closing the question to the santry.
 plained the reason of his votes on 801; and said, that if the present n made, he should have felt it his xt session, to have proposed a si-He should not now object to vote quis, provided he should not here-bsolutely against any intervenient might arise.
 RYFOLK laid it down, that every t right to worship God as he pleas-y for the safety of the established in violation of this right, the sub-ave repealed—for there indisputa-e repeal of which the subject had uously supported the motion.
 id that although it would perhaps,
 o his mind to put a direct negative quis's motion, yet he should vote estion.
 ANSDOWNE said he would vote for an impression of the practicability MBERLAND shortly observed, that solutions of the catholic body, he much disinclination to the present RYFOLK said his whole difference noble Friend (the Marquis Wellesnto the question of the practicabiconsistent with the security of our eech and state; and in this view he

The Lord CHANCELLOR moved the standing Order for the exclusion of strangers, and the House was cleared.
 A division then took place, when there appeared—
 For Marquis Wellesley's motion, Contents 74—Proxies 51—125.—Against the motion, Non-contents 74—Proxies 52—126—Majority against the motion ONE.
 The House then adjourned at FOUR O'CLOCK this morning.

LONDON—THURSDAY, JULY 2.

Dispatches were this morning received at the admiralty from Sir Home Popham, dated off the coast of Biscay, in which that gallant officer details a series of most successful enterprises undertaken by the expedition under his command, against the French troops on the shores of Biscay.

It will be recollected that Sir Home Popham sailed some time ago from Portsmouth, on a secret expedition to the coast of Spain. His object, as it now seems, was to open a communication with the Guerillas, and by driving the French from the sea coast, to prevent all future supplies of provisions to the French armies in the interior by means of neutral or other shipping.—Sir Home Popham commenced his operations by effecting a landing of between 3 and 400 seamen and marines at Lequito, in the Asturias, where they gallantly attacked the enemy, who came out to meet them, and the result was the discomfiture of the whole of the French corps. Three hundred were made prisoners, and the rest were killed or wounded. The seamen, who fought with their accustomed bravery, succeeded in landing one gun, with which they did considerable execution. The Guerillas harassed the French most effectually in the rear, and hastened their overthrow in a decided manner.

Malta and Gibraltar mails arrived yesterday. The accounts from Sicily are highly satisfactory; Lord W. Bentinck was in high favour and tranquillity has been completely restored throughout the island.

The substance of the dispatches received from Gibraltar by the mails above was published in the following bulletin:

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-street, July 1, 1812.

" Dispatches have been received from Lieut.-Gen. Campbell, commanding at Gibraltar, and from Major-Gen. Ross, commanding at Carthage.

" Gen. Campbell's dispatch of the 8th ult. incloses a letter he had received from Gen. Ballasteros, giving a brief account of a severe action fought between a body of Spanish troops, and the division of Gen. Courroux. The battle took place near Bornos, upon the 1st of June. The loss of the Spaniards in killed, wounded, and missing, was not less than 1,000, including about 80 officers. General Ballasteros retired to the ground he had occupied before the action, bringing off his wounded, who have since arrived at Algeiras; and the French have suffered so severely that they offered no molestation to his retreat.

" The last dispatches from Gen. Ross contain an account of a successful expedition against Almeira, concerted between himself, Captain Adam, of his Majesty's ship Invincible, and General Joseph O'Donnell, commanding the Spanish army in Murcia. Three hundred Spanish troops were embarked on board a small squadron under Capt. Adam's orders, and proceeded off Almeira, while the Spanish troops under Gen. Freyre attacked and drove the enemy from Baya, on the 18th of May; in consequence of which the garrison of Almeira was hastily withdrawn upon the 14th, in order to unite with those of Motril, Grenada, and other places, to make head against the Spanish army.

" As the enemy quitted Almeira, Captain Adam's corps landed, and took possession of the place. They captured three vessels in the port, destroyed the batteries and works erected by the French, and blew up the strong castle of St. Elmo, which had afforded security to the anchorage, and protected the enemy's privateers. All the serviceable ordnance was shipped for Carthage, together with a quantity of lead and sulphur.

" The inhabitants received the allies with the greatest enthusiasm; and as the port is no longer defensible, Gen. Ross hopes that the French will not re-occupy it."

It is reported, on authority of a private letter from an officer in our army, that an armistice had been agreed to between Lord Wellington and Marmont, but no credit is attached to the rumour.

A notice was posted up at Lloyd's yesterday, dated Gibraltar, June 6, stating that the Regency of Tripoly has declared war against Spain.

Another Anhalt mail has arrived—hostilities have not yet commenced—it is confidently stated that peace has been concluded between Russia and Turkey—the

On Sunday evening last, a most atrocious murder was committed on Michael Higgins, servant to M. Lynch, Esq. of Clogh, county Galway. On his return home to his master's house, he was waylaid by some persons who beat him without any apparent provocation, in such a dreadful manner, that he survived but a few hours. A reward has been offered by Arthur French St. George, Esq. for the apprehension and conviction of the perpetrators.

The royal Tyrone regiment of militia, which has been quartered in Galway for above a year, has received a route for Tuam, and march hence on Monday. They will be replaced by some companies of the Westmoreland militia, and, we understand, by 6th Garrison Battalion.

On Thursday se'night the Wexford regiment, which had been stationed in Tuam for a considerable time back, received the route for Enniskillen, whence the first division marched on Thursday morning.

Wednesday morning the Donegal regiment of militia quartered in Castlebar for a period of upwards of a year received a route to proceed for Boyle and Carrick-on-Shannon.

Wednesday last, the Rt. Rev. Lord Bishop of Limerick held his annual Visitation for this Diocese, at the Cathedral—the attendance of the Clergy was numerous, to whom a Sermon, suited to the occasion, was preached by the Rev. Chancellor Hoare, from 14th chapter St. Mark, v. 15—"Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature."

The Treasurer of the House of Industry has received the following sums, collected for said charity:—

- Kilteely church—Rev. Mr. Geraghty, £1 2 9
- Rathkeale do.—Rev. Mr. Jones, ..... 7 8 3
- Ditto, (per Rev. Mr. Jones,) from Hugh
- Massy, Esq. of Rockfield, ..... 1 0 0

The Treasurer of the House of Industry, thankfully acknowledges the receipt of 15 guineas from the Rev. Thomas Hussey Burgh, (per E. Bourke, Esq.) for the use of said charity.

William Cannon, Esq. has given £1 for the use of the House of Industry.

MARRIED,

Friday morning, in Dublin, Colonel Wardlaw, of the 76th Regiment, to the Honorable Anne Lake, youngest daughter of the late Lord Viscount Lake.

At Gosport, John Lane, Esq. Purser of his Majesty's ship Minden, 74 guns, to Miss Stonehouse, daughter of John Stonehouse, Esq. of Cork.

DIED,

At Clifton near Bristol, Henry Irwin, Esq. of Dawson-street, Dublin, aged 78.

Suddenly, On Thursday evening, at Friar's-Walk, Cork Mr. John M'Conochie.

In Roscrea, on Thursday, much lamented, Mr. John Grace, Methodist Preacher.

On Thursday se'night, in Gloucestershire, most deservedly regretted, Mrs. Wathen, wife of Charles Wathen, Esq. and daughter to the late Alex. Shearer, Esq. M. D. of this city.

On Tuesday last, in Castlebar, aged 20 years, Mr. Michael Delvin, of that town.

BALL AND SUPPER.

BY PARTICULAR DESIRE, THERE WILL BE
A Ball & Supper at Castle Connell,

On Friday Evening, the 10th Inst.

ADMITTANCE, 5s. 5d.

Tickets to be had of MADDEN, at the Spa.
 Castle Connell, July 7.

TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION,

On Friday, the 10th July,

Two HOUSES in Shannon-Row,

Convenient to the WINDMILL—Together or Separate.

SAID Houses are three Story high each; Ground of each House 20 Feet in Front, 22 Feet in Depth, with a Rere of 8 Feet by 20. Ground Rent of each only £4, 10s. with a Lease of Lives, and renewable at a Pepper Corn. Rent to commence the 20th September next. Immediate Possession can be given. Half the Purchase Money to be paid, and approved Bills at 91 Days for the remainder.

THOMAS SEYMOUR, Auctioneer.

Limerick, July 7.

DIOCESAN SCHOOL, LIMERICK,