

resolved—That we hereby return our most grateful thanks to the liberal Protestant Noblemen and Gentlemen of the Empire, who have with unremitting zeal supported our claims in and out of parliament.
 resolved—That our warm acknowledgements are by given to the Right Hon. the Knight of Kerry, Brudenel Plumer, Esq. and the other Protestant Gentlemen, who have honored our meeting with their attendance.
 resolved—That our sincere thanks are returned to Mr. O'Connell, Esq. Barrister at Law, for his luminous and patriotic speech, this day, as well as for his labors and distinguished exertions, at all times, in the service of his country.
 resolved—That the Gentlemen, named at the last meeting, with such other Gentlemen as they deem expedient to be added, do form a Board, to prepare our petitions, to have the same signed, and to forward our cause in every other respect.

THA. R. RYAN, Chairman.
 WM. O'SHEA, Secretary.

Mr. Ryan having left the Chair and Michael Arthur, being called thereto.
 resolved—that the thanks of this meeting be returned to Ths. R. Ryan, Esq. for his very proper, spirited and dignified conduct in the chair.

MICHAEL ARTHUR.

Mr. Roche's motion was seconded by Mr. A. F. Hill, who thus briefly and energetically addressed the meeting:
 Mr. Chairman—Sir, I rise to second the Resolutions which have just now been read—they speak the mild and moderate feelings of the Roman Catholics of the county of Limerick—they state our disappointments, our expectations, and our hopes. It does not befit me to dwell on the resolutions, further than to say—they contain voluminous on catholic grievances—we have the right to the property, and independent men of the earth with us. Mr. chairman, I am a plain man of common sense, unacquainted with public speaking—but I conclude without making one remark:—the paper reporters have stated that the right honorable representative for this city asserted in the commons of England, that the commercial interest of Limerick was not favourable to catholic claims.—I ask you to compose that respectable body? Is not its great utility of the quaker and catholic persuasion? and is not some of the most respectable of our protestant subjects, and others differing from us in religious opinions, signed our petition—with the exception of a very few indeed, and these few under the influence of our worthy member, and of our or rather very worthy corporation? Gentlemen, register your freeholds, and vote for those who will not mislead you.—Loud and continued applause.

Mr. O'Connell also addressed the meeting at length and with much energy, amidst loud and continued cheers
 The more numerous and respectable assemblage, of all religions, never we believe took place in this city. Amongst the many protestant gentlemen, who attended the meeting with their presence, was the Hon. Maurice Fitzgerald, the independent member for Kerry, and powerful advocate, in and out of parliament, of the rights of Irishmen. An assemblage of female rank and beauty appeared in the gallery.

Mr. Henry D'Esterre, Esq. and John Cox, Esq. of Castle Lodge, are appointed coroners of the county of Limerick; the former in the place of Thomas Ennis, Esq. and the latter in place of Stephen Dickson, Esq.

Rev. Henry Gubbins, has at this assizes been appointed local inspector of the city jail, in the room of the late Rev. Thomas Shepherd.
 A privateer captured the other day by Capt. Upton, a vessel in which we are happy to find was commanded by the celebrated or notorious Captain Blake. Blake was an American, but married and settled in Dunkirk; he had been a sad annoyance to our trade, so much so that a reward had been offered for capturing the privateer. He had been a prisoner of war, and getting home—we doubt his success would have endeavored to make a like attempt.
