

The arrival of the Proclamation for Parliament, which appears in this active canvass commenced in this city, by Lord Viscount Glentworth, friends of the Independence of Limerick. Right Hon. Col. Vereker's Address in this city, appears in our advertising a representative for this city, will y, the 16th inst.—See Sheriff's writ. Monsell has declined offering himself as a representative of this county, at it is believed, therefore, that the Earl of Limerick in this city, is

Fitz-Gerald, one of the present candidates for the county of Clare, has declined offering himself a candidate at Election.

A meeting of the freeholders and burgesses of Galway is to be held on Sunday next, for the purpose of reporting the result of their committee, when a candidate for the representation of the town will be offered.

A fire broke out at the rear of a linen manufactory, George's street, which caused general alarm, in consequence of seasoned timber, hair, &c. being burnt. We understand it occurred in the morning, and a quantity of hay being in the yard, the flames communicated to the Atlas, and St. Michael's engines were brought to the spot, and we are glad to get it under. The loss is estimated at £200.

A collection of £200 for the expenses of that weighty undertaking shall appear in our next issue.

The Cathedral will be given in future, on the 1st of November, at eleven o'clock.

Monday immediately subsequent to the 1st of November, the following gentlemen, viz. Wm. M. M. M., and D. E. G. M., and the Ex-Sheriffs, have resigned their offices, according to recent resolutions, and Arthur Brereton, Esq. (son of the late George Smyth, Esq. Town Clerk, sworn into office accordingly.)

Our Journalists, uninfluenced by party feelings, compels us to offer our sincere well deserved approbation the gentleman has obtained in the discharge of his duties. Wm. Hunt, Esq. as eminently entitled to the tribute of a manly demeanor, and affable the esteem of our respectable citizens, and the veneration of the vigilance rendered abortive the marauders, and detected any attempt disturbing the peace

Dublin Freeman's Journal of the 1st inst. that Mr. Sadler had arrived within a few miles of Whitehead, his voyage in two hours and a half, with any accident! On his way to Dublin, was near the Turnpike, at Capinure, eight or ten persons. They killed the guard, and wounded a passenger; they beat the fier which they carried

Friday morning, about 8 o'clock, as Mr. John Little, of Ballyspellan, in the county Kilkenny, was on his way to the fair of Collehill, he was attacked by two men, each armed with a case of pistols, within a mile of his house, one of whom fired at him, and lodged the contents of a pistol in his shoulder; the other then fired, and lodged a ball in his horses thigh. On alarming the people near, the robbers precipitately fled. Mr. Little was immediately removed to Kilkenny the ball was extracted from his shoulder, and we are happy to state he is in a fair way of recovery. As the Gentlemen of the neighbourhood went in immediate pursuit of them, we anxiously hope that the villains will be overtaken, and receive that punishment which such diabolical offences so justly merit.—Leinster Journal,

Dissolution of Parliament.

BY his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, Regent of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty.

A PROCLAMATION for dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the calling of another.

“GEORGE, P. R.

“Whereas we, acting in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, think fit, by and with the advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which stands prorogued to Friday the second day of October next: We do therefore, acting as aforesaid, publish this Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly; and the Lords spiritual and temporal, and the knights, citizens, and burgesses, and the commissioners for shires and burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their meeting and attendance on the said Friday the second day of October next: And we being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet his Majesty's people, and to have their advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all his Majesty's loving subjects our will and pleasure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, that, with the advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, we have this day given order, that the Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, and the Chancellor of Ireland, do respectively forthwith issue out writs, in due form and according to law, for calling a new Parliament: And we do hereby also, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, by this Proclamation under the great seal of the United Kingdom, require writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by the said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords spiritual and temporal, and Commons who are to serve in the said Parliament, to be duly returned to, and give their attendance in, the said Parliament; which writs are to be returnable on Tuesday, the 24th day of November next.

“Given at our court at Carlton-house, the 29th day of September, 1812, and in the 52d year of his Majesty's reign.

“God save the King.”

County of the City of Limerick.

IN pursuance of further Notice, posted by us on the 5th instant, we will proceed to hold the Election of a Representative for this City, between the hours of ten and eleven o'clock in the Forenoon of FRIDAY, the 16th instant, at the City Court-House.

Dated in Limerick, this 6th day of October, 1812.

HENRY COLLIS,
ARTHUR BRERETON, } SHERIFFS.

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Freemen, of the City of Limerick.

GENTLEMEN,

THE spontaneous assurances of unshaken Attachment, which the efforts to raise a Party against me has drawn forth, embolden me to offer myself again as your Representative. I have been too long in your service to make profession necessary; my past conduct is known to you, and if you do me the honor to re-elect me, you will find me consistent.

I have the honor to remain,
Gentlemen,

Your very obliged and faithful Servant,
C. VEREKER.

Limerick, October 6. 1812.

PUBLIC THANKS.

THE METHODIST Society of this City beg leave to return their sincere Thanks to Lord Viscount GLENTWORTH, for his very liberal Donation of £100, towards the erection of their New Chapel in George's Street.

HUGHES RUSSELL, Treasurer.
