Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders OF THE COUNTY OF LIMERICK.

GENTLEMEN, THE deepest impressions and most powerful affect tions are those that are least capable of utterance, and my heart is so full at this moment, that I can only say it most sincerely thanks you.

You have heretofore returned me as your Representative, at four contested Elections, by as many trium-phant Majorities, and a fifth time unanimously, and you have now, (when perhaps every thing depends upon the wisdom and integrity of that Parliament into which I am elected) once more, for the sixth time, returned me unanimously. Sensible as I am of the magnitude of this important trust, I am no less so of the distinguished manner in which it has been conferred, and be assured, I shall not omit to avail myself of your kind partiality, by again soliciting a continuance of that confidence with which you have so repeatedly honored me, when there shall be any probability of a General Election taking place.

I have the Honor to be, GENTLEMEN, With the greatest respect and gratifude.

Your faithful and obliged humble Servant, WILLIAM ODELL.

Limerick, Oct. 16, 1812.

TO THE Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders

OF THE COUNTY LIMERICK.

THANK you for the confidence, so honorable to me, which you have shewn in re-electing me one of your Representatives in Parliament.
