 unexampled resignation, Mrs. D'Estere, wife of Henry D'Estere, Esq. Alderman—a Lady of the sweetest disposition and amiable manners; always affable and engaging, she interested every individual who had the felicity of her acquaintance—her death is poignantly felt by her many distinguished relatives and friends, whose only consolation is the humble confidence that her spirit is flown to the regions of eternal happiness, for the enjoyment of which she was prepared by that true piety which pervaded all the actions of her life—Her remains are to be interred at an early hour on Monday, at Six-mile-Bridge, Co.
