New Method of WRITING

MR. WRAY
RESPECTFULLY informs the Nobility, Gentry of Limerick, that he will teach Gentlemen to WRITE, and perfect them in this accomplishment in Twelve Lessons.

By this modern System of Writing, a good hand, with neatness and dispatch, is acquired. He attends private Families, a usual, in English Education, so far as it is necessary for the Army, Navy, or Counting-Houses.

He has Globes on a new construction, which, with application to Maps, Geography, teaches on a most eligible plan.

Commands addressed to him, at the School, or at Mr. O'Beauchamp, Stationer, General, will be attended to. February 13
