Saturday last, at a meeting of the Corporation of Waterford, Henry Alcock, Esq. was elected Common Councilman, in the room of William Johnston, Esq. and an Alderman, in the room of William Congreve Alcock, Esq.

On the night of Sunday se'nnight, some villains attacked the house of John Connell, Farmer, residing at Truagh, County Clare, about five miles from this City—after breaking open the door and taking some weapons, they violently struck Connell with a pitchfork on the head—he continued to make resistance until nearly overpowered, when he effected escape thro' the Thatch;—the robbers then the house of almost every portable article, expect-to meet some gold which they understood he had possessed, but had secreted. Connell alarmed the neighbourhood, on which the fellows fled without the material part of their expected booty; this poor industrious farmer was, however, so much injured from the desperate wound he received, as that his death was the consequence, having died on the night of Sunday last;—and a Coroner's inquest was held on his Body, when a verdict was found to the above purport.

In the neighbourhood of Cahirconish, on Monday night last, several fellows paraded, with buglesounding, and perambulated the country for many hours; they turned up a fine field of the Rev. Dan. O'Brien, P. P. of Abington.

Monday night, a set of those lawless miscreants who have committed diabolical acts, went to a field of four acres, at Clounearne, in the North Liberties of this City, held by Mr. Daniel Hourigan, and turned up sods in almost every foot of the ground, as to render it at present perfectly useless to the occupier.
It was hoped that the active measures pursued lately by one of our Magistrates, would have prevented the continuance of such a practice, but the fellows seem determined to persevere until punished by the offended laws of their Country.

It is said to be the determination of the Duke of York that every one of the Generals now serving on the Staff, in Great Britain and Ireland, who have not served in the Peninsula, shall be sent out for the approaching campaign; and also the Adjutant Gene-rais, Quarter Master Generals, Paymaster Generals, Medical and Commissariat Departments—L. S.

It is now said, that the long delayed for Brevet will take place on the 12th of August.

The Roscommon regiment of militia were relieved on Saturday last, from the duty of the prison-ships in Hamoaze, by the Gloucester regiment.

The Leitrim Militia, quartered at Bristol, were under orders to embark for this country on Saturday last; they are to be quartered in Dublin.

A Court Martial was held at the Royal Barracks, Dublin, last January, on Captain Perse O'Keeffe Boulger, of the 93d foot, for sending a challenge by Lieut. G. Moore, of the North Mayo Militia, to Lt.
