At a Meeting of the DIRECTORS of St. Mary's Charity School, held on the 5th March, 1818.
Rev. G. HERBERT in the Chair.

PRESENT,

Anthony Bodkin, Michael O'Neill, William Ferguson, and Richard Rooney.

THE Treasurer's Accounts having been carefully examined and compared, there appears a balance of £1. 19s. 6½ due to him.

Resolved—That our Thanks are due to our Treasurer Mr JAMES RYAN, for the regularity and precision of his Accounts, and for his uniform and constant attention to the interests of said Charity from its commencement.

Resolved—That Mr. JAMES RYAN be requested to continue the Treasurership. G. HERBERT.

The Directors earnestly solicit the increased Liberality of the Public to his Charity School, the first founded in this City (in 1770) and which now contains 142 Boys, of whom nearly 100 are clothed, some of them partially supported, all educated on the Lancasterian System, and provided for, as far as circumstances will allow. They request the subscribers will pay in their Subscriptions for the past year, which fell due in February, and hope the Public will enable them to render the Institution still more useful, by administering more ample relief to some of its most distressed Objects.
