APRIL 19.—We are authorised to state that the Duke of Richmond, with a laudable at-the peace of the country, has, at the instance e representation of Patrick Mahon, of New-laid at his disposal the sum of 250000 l. ed between the five men who assisted in the capture of the notorious offender, Thomas now in our Jail.

happy to hear that some Legislative remedy applied towards correcting the alarming and ve progress of an evil now severely felt, and complained of—we mean the gross and fright-e committed by numbers in obtaining large money by Grand Jury Presentments, under e repairing roads, bridges, walls, &c.—Such of taxation is not only grievous in the ex-ut notoriously subversive of morality, by out the strongest temptation to perjury—chief has of late years increased to such a ul extent in this County, that at the last eizes, a sum considerably exceeding was demanded for two Baronies, though at zes of Cork immediately following, the e sum demanded by all the Baronies of that ounty only amounted to 257,000 l! riminal must this monstrous jobbing appear, is considered that this oppressive tax for the rt falls upon the poorest of his Majesty's , viz. the Cottier Farmers, many of whom pay rack rents for their holdings.

ust the Legislature will impose such checks nish the facility of obtaining unnecessary nents, and above all things, to make some n in the present mode of accounting; instead counting affidavit before a Magistrate in prihich is frequently not sworn, the Party e publicly examined upon oath as to the ure of the money, either at the Assizes or ons, and notice by posting or advertisement accounting, should be previously given, so ble the Public to watch over the application nms granted.
