

ertford Regiment arrived on Saturday r, from Sheerness, to replace the Derby which have embarked for Ireland.

ay se'night, the North Down Militia arstol, after a pleasant passage from Cove. y, 50 horses and 30 privates of the Royal drivers passed through this City from a route to embark at Cork for Portugal. y, a squadron of the 1st Dragoon Guards, m Gort, to do duty in place of the Brun-Corps that marched hence on Thursday. ay and Monday nights, the post boy from to Limerick was stopped by three armed ho robbed him of the entire mails; and on Miss Catherine Collins, post-mistress of , waited on the Rev. William Massy, to escort of two dragoons, which the worthy e with habitual activity granted, and about on the same night, four ruffians accosted boy, when he was also conveying the mail, x, in the County, the place he was robbed ghts previous, two of them leaping out of at each side of the road, and stopping the which he called for the guard to come up sistants, who were purposely about a hunds in the rere.—The dragoons, on coming red up of the robbers, and in the interim, rs escaped, although a shot was fired at one on sitting over the ditch.—The fellows ap-ed a show in our County Jail, & information n led before the Rev. William Massy, y they are identified as two of the men who the mail on the 25th and 26th April.—The ra Robert Ransberry and Timothy Shana-hng in the neighbourhood of Derk.—The t the dragoons and post boy is praise-it is hoped Government will give them reward for their vigilance and activity. e Historical Society, Trinity College, Dublin. og Gentlemen obtained Medals during hod, for their distinguished exertions in t departments of the Institution:

Mr. Brooke, Mr. Mulvaney, Mr. Wala)
—Mr. Foot, sen. Mr. Hayden. tion Verse—Messrs. L. Dickison, Halpin. nes Kennedy obtained a Certificate in Verse ion.

place the Lord Lieutenant has been pleased nt the most noble William Marquis of Tho-Governor of the County of Cork—and the on. James George Earl of Courtown a Go-f the Co. Wexford.

day last, the Right Hon. Lord Chief Baron, seat Mount Prospect, in this County, for re glad to learn that the boats employed on ish fishery, Co. Galway, have been unusually al this season.

ecture at the Cathedral will be given in the k on Tuesday morning instead of Friday. ew Church of Clare will open for service to-the 2d of May day morning three masons employed in a in Newtown Pery, were precipitated from d near the attic story, and received such as wounds, that they were taken to the Co. s apparently with little hopes of recovery, by skilful attention, one of the poor men charged yesterday, and the other two are in f convalescence.

ay last, Admiral Sir R. Keats, in the Beilert guns, with the Niobe and Loire frigates, d off Cape, and made signal for his Ma-

The Commissioners of Excise have offered a reward of £100, for the apprehension of the fellows concerned in the murder of Michael Quin, and attacking the Soldiers of the 6th Garrison Battalion, whilst engaged in seizing a Still at Derrygoulan, co.
Galway, as stated in Saturday's Chronicle.—The Advertisement of said Reward shall appear in our next publication

BIRTH.—On the 22d inst at Castle Martyr, Co.
Cork, the lady of the Rev. Wm Butler, of a daughter—At Caher Abboy, Co Tipperary, the lady of Joshua Fennell, Esq of a son and heir—In Fitzwilliam Square Dublin, the lady of Thomas O. Lees, Esq of a daughter—At Brecon Hall Norfolk, the lady of Thomas French Berney, Esq. High Sheriff of that Co. of a son and heir—Yesterday, at his seat at Castle Park, near this City, the lady of William Maunsell, Esq. of a son.

DIED.—In London, Major-General Barry Close—In Back lane, Dublin, Mr. Richard Campbell, Printer—In Fleet-street, Mr. Francis O'Neil—In Exeter, of a decline, Acheson Moore, Esq. nephew to Lord Gosford, and Major of the Royal Tyrone, Regt. of Militia, highly and deservedly lamented by his numerous Friends and Brother Officers—In Milltown, Co. Kerry, Thomas Giles, Esq. much regretted.—In Poland-st. London, Samuel Foart Simmons, Esq. M.
D Physician Extraordinary to the King—In Portman Place, Fanny, the wife of G. H. West, Esq. daughter of Sir M. B. Folkes, Bart. M. P.—In Sackville-street, Dublin, Mr. John Anderson, Fruiterer—A few days ago, the Rev. Thomas O'Neil, P. P. of Abbeyfeale—In Islington, Mrs. Elizabeth Cox, wife of Mr. Joseph Cox, of Cheapside—The wife of Mr. John Harris, corner of St. Paul's Church Yard London—near London, the wife of James Craig, Esq. late M. P. for Carrickfergus—In Dublin, Mr. Richard Meehan, of Fleet Street—At Drumcondra, Mrs. Mary Hogan, wife of Mr. Edward Hogan—Thursday morning at Helen-Park, County Tipperary, much lamented, James Howley, Esq. M. D.—On Tuesday last, at Mannister, Mrs. Moran.

MARKET PRICES.—Wheat, 2s. 9d. to 2s. 11½d per stone—Barley, 15½d to 16d—Oats, 15½d to 16d.
Rapeseed 00s. per brl.—Pork, 59s. 0d. to 00s. 0d. per cwt—Flour, 36s. to 40s. 0d per cwt.—Oatmeal 26s to 28s per cwt—Beef, 7½d to 8½d per lb.—Mutton 2d to 3d per lb.—Potatoes, 4d. to 4½d per stone.

BUTTER, CASKS—90s. | 86s | 78s. | 68s.
FIRKINS—96s. | 92s. | 84s. | 74s.

THE HIGH SHERIFF
WILL receive Proposals for building a Gallery in the New County Court, and making other Improvements according to a Plan in his Possession.
Caherline, May 1, 1815.

ANGLER'S LODGE, near Doonass, Still open for Proposals.

No Preference will be given but to the highest Bidder and best Tenant. Application to JOHN M. A. TAVERNER, Esq.

Limerick, May 1, 1815.

Rendered Tallow.

ROBERT FERGUSON

HAS FOR SALE,

A few Hogheads Tallow.

—ALSO—

Some BAGS HOPS.

By permission of the Right Hon.
WATSON, Esq.

THE EXHIB

OF THE

SAGACIOUS ELEPHANT

WILL BE OPEN, ON MOND

At the Corner of Ellen-st

S. POLI

Of the Royal Menagerie, Esc

EVER anxious of gratifying tened Public, respectfully b

Nobility, Gentry, and the Cur rived in this Town, with one of Nature's wonderful production.

A Scientific Ex

" The stupendous size, size

Elephant, have in all ages rende mankind; though possessed of other quadruped, it is guiltless o and wanders about the woods o state of Majestic mildness. Th edly the largest of all terrestrial height of twelve feet and upwa

Elephant may justly be consid cles of nature; being at once t and the instrument by which it with food, conveying whatever mouth by its assistance, and is lity, that it can pick up the sm pleasure—The Tusks, when fr six to nine feet long—The sag far superior to all quadrupeds, thing but they may be taught

History of the Elephant.

The one here presented to t largest and most tractable in t was brought to England in the man, in September, 1809; he b digious manner, is remarkably ful sagacity is almost incredibl his keeper he will lay down bolt and unbolt doors; pick u trunk, and place them any wh any person to whom he is desi many other surprising and en fully verify the many curious they may appear) told of this unequivocally prove him to best."

The Proprietor humbly solici trouge of the Public to an strike every beholder with w not only from an Elephant bei drupeds; but from the many with which he entertains his a Admittance, 1s. 8d.—C

In the Matter of BRYAN HARRIS, }
a Bankrupt. } will b

the m sioners, in said Commission 15th day of May instant, at noon, at the Royal Exchan where, and at the Bar of the C

Limerick, Lists of said Debt