

arrived at Brighton.
will leave England in a of the Emperor of from India in the last fleet:
Major Foster, Captain Chad-Lieutenant Sinclair, 90th foot, Col. Austen; Capt.
died on his passage.

on Saturday, resigned his the Lords of the Bedchamber to in consequence of the misunder-him and Lord Liverpool, respect-of the High Sheriff for the county (first payment) as appears by the the capture of Jongjocarta, to a 24,000 ster.

Commons went into a Committee on Monday evening.
proposed that the clauses submitted by could be taken into consideration. In ish this, he begged the Committee at pro forma, and after receiving all ered, that the Bill should be recomwholly into discussion on Monday—ced on both sides, he was happy to orable to the Bill.

ords from Messrs. Ryder, Canning, Castlereagh, it was agreed to Mr.
Debate would certainly come on ares, has been permitted to wear Knight Grand Cross of the Order ferred on him by the King of Swereral Murray also, to wear the insigof the Tower and Sword, conferred gent of Portugal.

Highness Augustus Ferdinand of Berlin on the 2d inst. in the 83d
He was the youngest son of Frede-brother to Frederick II. and great ent reigning Monarch.
ucia is to be given up to the Swedes port.

to the 15th inst. inclusive, have been oes not appear that there has been onsequence in Saxony since the bat-n the 5th.

entered Dresden on the 8th in the as followed by Bonaparte, who at iving, established his head-quarters sians and Prussians have crossed the nt the three bridges over which they ench say, they took 5,000 prisoners Lutzen, and 10 pieces of cannon. blished the Prussian account of that ated "from the field of battle," but that it is a tissue of lies from beginmiralty-Office, May 15.

Captain Sir Thomas J. Cochrane, ship Surprise, addressed to Captain Cumberland, dated off Barbadoes, 15, states, that on the 16th of that n with, and captured, after a chase d a half, the American privateer brig for 14, but mounting only 12 guns, A shot wounded two of his men, one e dead

also contains a list of 38 American and detained by the squadron under Rear-Admiral Cockburn; also of 7 s, captured by the squadron of Vice borough, on the Irish station.

May 16—3 per cent. Consols 90 72—5 per cent 90—Navy Bills—
—Bank Stock 90

George Canning, who serves for Liverpool

This day, the Right Worshipful Mayor distributed, to the Fund for relief of the Sick Poor, to the Dispensary in Bridge-Street, and to the Lunatic Hospital— $2s$ each, being the amount of fines levied by his Worship since Saturday, on persons conveying Timber contrary to Law, for breaches of the Sabbath, and on a Servant, forfeiting his wages by leaving his Master without notice or just cause.

Yesterday morning the House and Furniture of a poor industrious man, named Hynes, at Lienagry, in this County, were accidentally consumed by fire.

COMMITTED—By Bryan Sheehy, Esq. to the Co Jail, from thence to be transmitted to the County Cork Jail. James Leahy, of Curragh, charged with a capital felony, at the prosecution of Michael Daly.
This morning by the Right Worshipful Mayor, to the city gaol, James Hanrahan, charged with having with others, on the 19th instant, riotously opposed and obstructed Mr. Tim. Sullivan, Hearth and Window Tax Collector, in the execution of his duty in the South Liberties.

BIRTH—In Dublin, the lady of Bernard Shaw, Esq. of a son—In Dengil street, Dublin, the lady of Henry Blaquierte, Esq. of a son—Yesterday, at his house, Bank-Place, the lady of John Kennedy, Esq.
Banker, of a daughter—At Ardfert Abbey, County Kerry, the lady of the Rev. John Talbot, and niece of the Earl of Glandore, of a daughter.

MARRIED—At Rathronan Church, on Saturday last, by the Rev Edward Wight, Hunt Walsh Chambre, Esq. to Miss Upton, only daughter of William John Upton, of Ballynabearny, in this Co.
Esq.—In St. Mary's Church, Dublin, Wm. Hughes, Esq. of Listowel, to Margaret, Widow of the late Colonel David Duncan—At Luffness, East Lothian, Captain Dudgeon, 58th Regiment, to Miss Yule, daughter of James Yule, Esq. of Gibleea.—John Clark, Esq. Barrister at Law, to Mary, only daughter of the late Thomas Palmer, Esq. of Kilbally-skea, in the King's County.

DIED—In Dublin, of a day's illness, the Rt. Hon.
Isaac Corry, late M. P. and formerly Chancellor of the Exchequer for Ireland—In Clonmel, Mrs. Jane Morgan—William Talbot, Esq. of Loughane, King's County—At the Monastery, Kilkenny, the Rev. Mr.
Dunn—In Waterford, the relict of the late Mr.
Edmond Morrissey—At Ross, County Galway, the wife of Roger Scully, Esq.—On Wednesday evening, at his house in Patrick-Street, Mr. John Purcell, Watch and Clock Maker, leaving a wife and numerous children to regret a loving husband and tender parent—In her 17th year, Sarah, daughter of Mr. J.
Halyday, of Newry—At Sampson Hall, near Wilmington, South Carolina, Michael Sampson, Esq.
Counsellor at Law in that State, and eldest son of the late Rev. Arthur Sampson, of this Kingdom—At Wakefield, Colonel Tottenham, son of the Rev.
J. Tottenham, of Tottenham-Green, Co. Wexford, cousin of the Marquis of Ely, and brother to the late General Tottenham—In Yorkshire, of the gout in his stomach, Sir Peter Warburton, Bart—At Bath, the Hon. Mrs. Hall, wife of Thomas Hall, Esq. and daughter to the late Lord Lisle.

Potatoes from $9\frac{1}{2}$ to $9\frac{3}{4}$ per Stone.

AUCTION of PRINTS, At the ASSEMBLY-ROOMS.

THIS SALE,

Which was Advertised for Monday 17, and postponed

WILL POSITIVELY TAKE PLACE

ON MONDAY NEXT, 24TH,

When all must be Sold without reserve.

Sale to commence at 12 o'Clock.

Limerick, May, 22, 1815.

Noblemen and Gentlemen

DANIEL BUSB

Mineral Surveyor, and Civil

BUSB leave to inform the Noblemen of Ireland, that he is now at liberty to Survey for Minerals, &c. resources are, Coal, Copper Ore, Lead Ore, Iron Ore and Stone, Limestone Manganese, Flagstones and Slates, Clay teryware, &c. and raising Springs of Water &c. &c.

D. B. in conjunction with his brother honour of making a Mineral Survey of the states of the Marquis and Marchioness in 1806, and such discoveries then made since opened, have extended their research.

D. B. will make Sections of the Strata Ever Plans of the same, and hopes from knowledge and experience, from the Survey to those of less extent in England Ireland, to be able to give satisfaction.

D. B. is and will be a few week's exploring the Estate of THOMAS PHYLIP
M

25

JAMES H. CANTON

HAS FOR SALE

By Wholesale and Retail

At his DRUG WARE-HOUSE

A Large supply of the highly celebra-Epsom Salts; a Lot of Genuine Cal-& half-pint bottles; Best Peruvian Bark engaged; Imperial Plate Powder, (a va-preparation;) also, a large quantity of which, with every Article in the Drug Sold at Dublin Prices.

Also, Dye Stuffs; Oils and Colours; Aquafortis; a few small casks remain-White and Red Lead. The greatest Retailers, and those who buy Medicines the Poor. A supply of Real Burgundy Strong Menstrual Ointment, 9ultra. Sq Cheltenham Salts, 2s 6d., Gowland's Essence Spruce; Hooper's and Andernett's Worm Powder; Steer's Opodel-Liquid Blacking; Soda Water. They be warranted Genuine, and on Purchase of Sweet Oil, a considerable reduction

A quantity of Pure and Strong Ro-and Sharp Medicines. No Recipes con-Such Country Apothecaries orders to him, shall have them exte-Prices. Limerick, 5th

Land Surveying

JAMES O'DWY

RETURNS his most sincere than-for the distinguished preference Profession, and assures those Gent-be pleased to favor him with the Estates or Farms, that he will discharge duty with that judgment and probity thereto entitled him to the notice Public.

N. B.—An APPRENTICE wanting ply, unless scientifically qualified.
Fanningstown, (near Fedamore,)
May 22, 1815.

WANTED,

A SERVANT to act as Grocer the strongest recommendation Application to Messrs. W & A Limerick,