

The following letter has been sent by the Master of the ship Caroline, of 16 guns, belonging to Liverpool, to the Superintendent of Inshahol Light-House, stating it might be made public for the information of the Shipping Trade in the Channel:

Ship Caroline, 30th June, 1813.—off Inshahol.
 I sailed from St. Salvador, in South America, on the 20th of April, and have on my passage in with three Yankee Privateers, all of which are at off.

On my passage out to Salvadore had an action with an American Privateer, of 18 guns, in lat. 19. long 47. 30 W. which we beat off. There is a Yankee Schooner Privateer cruising off Achill wearing tanned foresails, apparently of heavy

"I am, Sir, your obedient servant,
 JOHN MITCHELL."

The Extraordinary Gazette is to be translated immediately into French and German, and sent to Constantinople for distribution. Every means is to be adopted to increase its circulation.

A Texer, jeweller, in the Palace Royal, Paris, was recently robbed of articles of jewellery to the amount of 1000 sterling.

The Regular, a French 74, entered the river of Bourdeaux on the 28th May. A French paper remarks, that this vessel is the first of so large a class that has been seen in the Gironde.

The Illuminations in this City will continue three days for Wellington's Victory.

It is said that Field Marshal the Marquis of Wellington will be shortly created Duke of Vittoria, and that the title will be augmented by a vote of Parliament. General Sir Thomas Graham, and Sir Rowland Hill are to be created Peers, and to have appropriate pensions for their distinguished conduct in the late battle.

The Russians have actually commenced offensive operations against the Danes.

An immense train of artillery has been embarked on the last week, and has sailed for Gottenburgh. It is intended for the use of the allies; but is to proceed in the first instance to Gottenburgh until the issue of the peace was known.

The Lords and Commons are this evening to thank the Marquis Wellington and his brave troops, for the late successful victory.

General Thevenot, and another General Officer, were made prisoners at Vittoria—Gen. Rey, and others of the same rank are wounded.

Several slugs have been extracted from Mr. Oakley, who was fired at on Sunday evening, and he is now out of danger.

By the last accounts was daily expected at

On Saturday in the King's Bench, a motion was made on the behalf of Mrs. Mary Ann Clarke, to stay proceedings in an action of debt, it being sworn that she had been married, and that her husband was dead. The Court refused to interfere in a summary proceeding, not having been sworn that the plaintiff knew she was married. The Learned Counsel insisted, that the notoriety of the fact of her marriage was sufficient, but the Court refused to have any judicial notice of Mrs. Clarke's coverture.

On Sunday the 30th ult. seven brothers, of the name of Sackett, attended Divine Service, at St. Peter's Church, in Thanet, whose united ages amounted to 1000 years. They afterwards dined together at Mr. Sackett's, at Northwood, one of the said

The Second Edition of our Chronicle last post, gave an official account with the details of the killed, wounded, &c. in the great and memorable victory obtained by the brave Wellington, over Joseph Bonaparte and his troops, which have flown from Spain. Amongst the names of our countrymen and fellow citizens who were engaged in this glorious battle, we notice with feelings of regret, those of Lieut. Harley and Lieut. Hill, both of the 47th Regt. and both near relatives, and Lieut. Percy, 51st Regt. who gallantly fell in the moments of victory.—The following young Gentlemen natives of this City and vicinity, were wounded—Capt. Charles FitzGerald, Capt. Vandeleur, Capt. O'Brien, 87th, Capt. Gough, 68th, Lieut. Walsh, 5th, and Lieut. Johnson, 5th Regt. Captain Carew, of the 18th Dragoons, who was killed, was a native of the Co. Waterford, Lieut. Lindsay, 85th, Ensign Parvin, 61st, both from Cork, Lieut. Reynett, and Ensign Bolton, of the 5th, from Waterford, many others of the officers who were killed and wounded are also our countrymen, and all of them have been signalized for intrepidity and valour.

A Gentleman has favored us with the following communication, just received from the Atlantic Hotel, Miltown Malbay:—

"Miltown Hotel, July 5, 1813.

"MY DEAR SIR—"I like this place extremely—your representation of the romantic scenery of the adjacent coast and the interior Country, I have found much surpassed, by an actual view of the interesting objects which decorate this neighbourhood.—The Hotel is more spacious, and, I must candidly confess, better appointed in all respects, than any marine establishment I have visited in England.—The society at present here afford me great pleasure; they are lively, affable, and particularly attentive to me, as a stranger. I would advise you to hasten your departure for this place, as it is likely we shall be full in a very short time.

"Your's always, most truly, H. C."

"There will be a Ball on Tuesday night."

The following notice was distributed by the Rt. Worshipful Mayor in this City on Thursday:
ILLUMINATION.

"In consequence of the Official Account having arrived, of the great and splendid Victory obtained by the Marquis of Wellington in Spain, and the exultation manifested on the occasion, the Mayor, to gratify his own feelings, as well as those of his Fellow-Citizens, signifies his wish for a General Illumination, to take place this Night, to commence at half-past Eight, and terminate at half-past Ten o'Clock.

"The Mayor requests there will not be any Squibs fired in the Streets, as they very much annoy Passengers, &c.

In compliance with the above, this City was brilliantly illuminated on Thursday night—At eight o'clock the troops in Garrison, consisting of the 1st King's Dragoons, Sligo and Shropshire Militias, and the Yeomanry Brigade, which mustered very strong, under the command of Captain Vincent, were drawn up on the road near the New Barracks, and fired a feu-de-joie, which was answered by a royal salute from the Artillery, and nine hearty cheers from the troops and thousands of spectators, who joined most gladly on the joyous occasion.

Several transparencies were exhibited during the illumination, and none attracted more particular notice than the extensive and elegant drawings de-

BIRTH—This day, in late Patrick Grene, Esq. a daughter.—In Claremont, London, Esq. of a daughter.—In George's street, of Thos. Philips Vokes, Co. of a daughter.—In London, the of a son.—On Monday, the Esq. of Trivort, County

MARRIED—Francis Sil to the amiable Miss Sleaz Sigaven, of Rathkenny, Lodge, co. Dublin, Dr. to Miss Roney, daughter Dublin, Surgeon.—John Rosanna, daughter of A. Co. Derry, Esq.—By the Henry Blakeney, Esq. of to Miss Charlotte Mah Mahon, Esq. of Castlegar Church, Bath. Gerald Fitz square, London, to Cath Right Hon. Sir Lucius Sir Edward O'Brien, Bt.

DIED—At Harrow, Sar gar, Esq. late Major 23d Henriette Peibam, wife of son Peibam.

Limerick Races—Wednesday—Sweepstake and Silver Cup.

Mr. Raymond's ch. Mr. O'Brien's Miss Same Day, £50 Handic half beats.

Mr. Creagh's ch. c. Cruize Mr. Hunter's ch. c. Sir Jo Mr. Croker's gr. c. Pet, 9 Mr. Royce's ch. f. Louisa.

Much betting, and good with the Jockey the third Thursday, after the M Guineas—one two-mile h

Mr. Copley's Steer Mr. Creed's Ellen, Sam: Day, a Match Mr. Croker's Miss Mr. Royce's Vanity

Several Advertis postponed this day. No alteration in

General Synod

AT an Annual Meeting of the General Synod of the town, July 2d, 1813, the agreed to, and ordered to be That, however reluctant political sentiments on the feel ourselves called on, at our unshaken attachment to Constitution—an attachment and confirmed by our own Sensible of the blessings liberty which we enjoy, we tators of the exertions wh